

Blair

Surging Seventies

Research by Betty Brown
Oklahoma Department of Libraries

Arranged
by Charles Campbell

ART: Frank D. McSherry, Jr.

016.810 S961

73-15310

reference collection book

SEP

kansas city public library kansas city, missouri

MAIN

KANSAS CITY, MO. PUBLIC LIBRARY

rence

OKLAHOMA WR 0 0001 0431195 6

Published in 1970-71-72-73, touching us and the world; REFERENCE thank you for bringing us the lines of our contemporary scene.

We regret inadvertent omissions and suggest that these be rectified on the last two blank sheets.

This listing, based on all information available, is not copyrighted. We urge use of it in reprinting and in every way discernible.

Posthumous excerpts, underscored, were selected by Pauline Westman.

According to the Department of Libraries policy, an Oklahoma author is someone meeting the following criteria:

1. A person who was born in the State.
2. A person who is the product of the Oklahoma environment, who received his early education and produced his early work here; or a person who has lived in Oklahoma for a minimum of 10 years and written most of his books while a resident of the State.
3. A person who writes and publishes a work while a resident of the State is considered an Oklahoma author only during his residency if he remains in the State less than 10 years.

Single copies may be obtained gratis by calling at the office of the Oklahoma
Department of Libraries, first floor,
State Capitol, Oklahoma City.

Professional typing: Shirley Ann Landis Oklahoma City

gpt 7315310
KANSAS CITY (MO.) PUBLIC LIBRARY

Abram, Theresa Williams

Abram's treasures,

"A book of prose and poetry designed for pleasurable reading for persons of all ages. Some of these poems were written from actual current events, some as a result of travel, others just for fun. 'Choral Script' was written for a city-wide school program, it is an hours entertainment. There are within these pages poems for all occasions."

Rhythm and animals,

"A book of poetry geared to the needs of primary children and readers of low levels. Back poem is illustrated by Rodney Owen and his son, age 19. A poetry work book.

Both books are listed on Oklahoma City School Systems Buying Guide."

Adams, Clifton

The badge and Harry Cole,
Doubleday, 1971

Biscuit-shooter,
Doubleday, 1971

Concannon,
Doubleday, 1972

Hard times and Arnie Smith,
Doubleday, 1972

Hassle and the medicine man,
Doubleday, 1973

The last days of Wolf Garnett,
Doubleday, 1970

Tragg's choice,
Ace Books, 1971

Aldrich, Gene, 1915-

Black heritage in Oklahoma,
Thompson Book and Supply, 1973

True tales in Oklahoma,
Edited by Gene Aldrich and Royce H. Peterson,
Thompson Book and Supply, c1971

Alexander, J. T.

A dictionary of the Cherokee Indian language,
Sperry, Okla., c1971

"Lengthy study of this language and research indicated there were no grammars, dictionaries, etc. available. It was compiled for the benefit of those interested in the language, mainly to keep at least this much from being lost, as has too much of Indian heritage already."

Allen, Elizabeth, 1914-
 Younger's race,
 Grosset & Dunlap, 1972

Anderson, LaVere

Abe Lincoln and the river robbers,
 Garrard Pub. Co., 1972

Allan Pinkerton; first private eye,
 Garrard Pub. Co., 1972

Black Hawk: Indian patriot,
 Garrard Pub. Co., 1973

Frederic Remington, artist on horseback,
 Garrard Pub. Co., 1971

Quanah Parker, Indian warrior for peace,
 Garrard Pub. Co., 1970

Sitting Bull,
 Dell Pub. Co., 1972

Sitting Bull, great Sioux chief,
 Garrard Pub. Co., 1970

Tad Lincoln, Abe's son,
 Garrard Pub. Co., 1971

Aurandt, Paul Harvey, 1918-
 You said it, Paul Harvey,
 Compiled by Lynne Harvey,
 Paulyne, Inc., 1970

Austin, Maxine S.
 The spring of the spirit; poems,
 1972

Baird, William David, 1939-

The Choctaw people,
 Phoenix, Ariz., Indian Tribal Series, 1973
 "This study reflects my continuing interest in this proud tribe that still resides in southwestern Okla.
 Also designed for the general reader, it follows the history of the Choctaws from pre-history to the present."

The Osage people,
 Phoenix, Ariz., Indian Tribal Series, 1972
 "This brief study grew out of an increasing admiration on my part for the heritage of the Osages.
 Designed for the general reader, it traces the 'Little Ones' from their pre-history to modern times."

Peter Pitchlynn: Chief of the Choctaws,
 University of Oklahoma Press, 1972
 "This book was the culmination of a study I began in graduate school. Based upon the Pitchlynn Papers in the Gilcrease Institute, Tulsa, Oklahoma, it seeks to chronicle the response of Pitchlynn to acculturative forces operative in his life."

Baker, Donna, ed.

A pioneer history of Shattuck,
Co-editors: Joanne Keith, and Noma Sprague,
Shattuck, Okla., c1970

Barry, Bob

Touchdown Oklahoma,
by Bob Barry and Jack Ogle,
Hooper Printing Co., 1972

Bartel, Irene Brown

No drums or thunder,
Naylor, 1970

"It is a fulfillment of a life-long ambition to write a book. It is a memorial to my parents and the thousands of other parents who homesteaded land, rearing their families in the Southwest. Many of their children are alive today. They will re-live their childhood by reading this book."

Beaver County Historical Society, Inc., Beaver, Okla.

History of Beaver County,
Berenice Jackson, ed., 1971

"The History of Beaver County compiled by the Beaver County Historical Society, is a complete and accurate history of the first county in the Panhandle. The pictures are outstanding and the narration is written in a manner which holds the interest of the reader. Local teachers have recommended this book be used in the schools."

Becht, J. Edwin, 1918-

A geography of transportation and business logistics,
W. C. Brown, 1970

Beebe, B. F. SEE Johnson, Burdetta Faye (Beebe) 1920-

Beeman, William Oren, 1892-

Oklahoma Christian College: dream to reality,
Gospel Light Publishing Co., 1970

"It is history of Oklahoma Christian College. I wrote it because the college is the product of work and sacrifices of thousands of Oklahomans. The struggle for survival in the early years was an epic one and deserved to be told."

Bell, George Morrison, 1901-

Genealogy of "Old & new Cherokee Indian families," Bartlesville, Okla., 1972

"My sons wanted me to trace our family history-- it was so interesting that I decided to broaden my research to include other Cherokee Indian families. It gave me great pleasure that I was able to compile and preserve this genealogy information on 700 family groups for the present and future generations. I was a little over six years doing my research and publishing my book."

Bell, Robert Eugene, 1914-
The Harlan site, Ck-6...
Cherokee County, Eastern Oklahoma,
Oklahoma Anthropological Society, 1972

Bench, Johnny
From behind the plate,
Prentice-Hall, 1972

Bennett, Charles L.
The new China,
Oklahoma Publishing Co., 1972

Bennett, Marjorie D.
Patchwork poetry,
Petite Press, 1973
"Poetry represents universal thought uniquely expressed. Readers experience pleasure on encountering ideas they would wish to express themselves, writing thoughts clarify them. Well written lines clarify readers' thought. It was a pleasure to piece together Patchwork Poetry.
My hope and expectation is the reader will enjoy it and receive new insight."

Berryman, John, 1914-1972
Delusions, etc., of John Berryman,
Farrar, Straus and Giroux, 1972

Dream songs,
Farrar, Straus and Giroux, 1971

Love & fame,
Farrar, Straus and Giroux, 1970

Recovery,
Farrar, Straus and Giroux, 1973

Selected poems, 1938-1968,
Faber and Faber Ltd., 1972

Seventy-seven dream songs,
Farrar, Straus and Giroux, 1970

In 1964, John Berryman was awarded the Pulitzer Prize in Poetry, for his book, 77 Dream Songs.
This book is a continuation and completion of the poems, having 308 songs, or poems. Many of the songs are centered on death and suicide, and an eternal hunger for the WHY of things--which is unsatisfied.

Berthrong, Donald J., ed.
A Confederate in the Colorado gold fields,
by Daniel Ellis Conner. Edited by Donald J.
Berthrong and Odessa Davenport,
University of Oklahoma Press. 1970

- Bibens, Robert F.
 Guiding learning in the secondary schools,
 by John W. Renner, Robert F. Bibens, and Gene D.
 Shepherd,
 Harper & Row, 1972
- Teachers should care: social perspectives of teaching,
 by George Henderson and Robert F. Bibens,
 Harper & Row, 1970
- Bickham, Jack M.
 The apple dumpling gang,
 Doubleday, 1971
- Bounty on wildcat, by Jeff Clinton, pseud.,
 Berkley Pub., 1971
- Decker's campaign,
 Doubleday, 1970
- Dopey Dan,
 Doubleday, 1972
- Fletcher,
 Berkley Pub. Corp., 1971
- Goin'
 Paperback Library, 1971
- Hang high, O'Shea, by Jeff Clinton, pseud.
 Berkley Pub., 1972
- Jilly's canal,
 Doubleday, 1971
- Katie, Kelly and Heck,
 Doubleday, 1973
- Killer's choice, by Jeff Clinton, pseud.
 Berkley Pub., 1972
- Wanted: Wildcat O'Shea, by Jeff Clinton, pseud.
 Berkley Pub., 1973
- Watch out for Wildcat, by Jeff Clinton, pseud.
 Berkley Pub., 1973
- Wildcat on the loose, by Jeff Clinton, pseud.
 Berkley Pub., 1972
- Wildcat takes his medicine, by Jeff Clinton, pseud.
 Berkley Pub., 1972

"I write each book with the anticipation of planning another when the current plotting has reached its culmination. I hope my imagination affords relaxation, amusement, anticipation toward a climax and some acquaintance with locale and characterization. For my readership, that seems to be the brand that satisfies."

- Bixler, Mary Maude Olive, 1880-
 Memoirs of Mary, by Maude Bixler,
 Pageant Press International Corp., c1970
 (This book)"begins with a wonderful picture of life on the frontier--its hardships and its small return for great labors. It is a world of primitive conditions - sod houses, scarce water, and intractable soil. The growth and flowering of the countryside, and of her own life, reflects an entire era in our American heritage."
- Blackstone, Tsianina, 1892-
 Where trails have led me, by Tsianina,
 Vergara Printing Co., c1970
- Blaine, Thomas R., 1895-
 Prevent that heart attack!
 Citadel Press, 1972
- Bleeck, Oliver, pseud. SEE Thomas, Ross, 1926-
- Blue Eagle, Acee, 1907-1959
 Echogee: the little blue deer,
 Palmco Investment Corp., c1971
Echogee, the Little Blue Deer, written by Acee Blue Eagle and illustrated by his famous drawings, was his only book for children. He is probably the best-known Indian artist in the world. He was named the "Outstanding Indian of 1958". He died in 1959, at the age of 52. The manuscript lay in a drawer, neglected until recently. It was written in 1932.
- Boggs, Frank K.
 Myriad of sports...a profile of Oklahoma City,
 by Pen Woods and Frank K. Boggs,
 All Sports Association of Okla. City, Okla., c1971
- The pretty good of Frank Boggs,
 Oklahoma Publishing Co., c1972
 "When guys in the big town put together collections of their work, they normally call it 'The Best of Joe Blow', if Joe Blow happens to be his name. I'm not sure these are my best, but I really do believe they're Pretty Good. They contain a mixture of nostalgia, fun, sadness, patriotism."
- Boren, James Harlan, 1925-
 When in doubt, mumble; a bureaucrat's handbook,
 Van Nostrand Reinhold Co., 1972

Brandenburg, John Harkey
Caryatids, 1972

Dear John notes; on sex and the nature of things,
Dorrance, 1972

Gemini crickets, 1973

Keepers, 1973

Bristow, Robert O'Neil, 1926-
Night season,
Morrow, 1970

Brown, Harley P.
Aquatic dryopoid beetles (coleoptera) of the United States,
Norman, Okla., 1973

Brown, Homer Obed, 1933-
James Joyce's early fiction: the biography of a form,
Case Western Reserve University, 1972

Brown, Maibelle
Pioneer of faith,
"Pioneer of faith was written for his grandchildren
at the request of Birdie, the widow of Reverend Edwin Samuel Higgins. Readers will profit by learning the historical facts about early day settlers in the Cherokee Strip in the 1890's."

Brown, Opal Hartsell, 1907-
The cross, the cow, or the prayer rug,
Dorrance, 1970
"During a trip around the world, which involved much research for total understanding, I was awakened - sometimes startled - by the similarities in the mores and philosophies of 'strange' people and those of 'familiar' Americans. I wanted to share those awakenings, with others, hoping they, too, would be enriched, entertained, rewarded."

Brown, William Richard, 1929-
Imagemaker: Will Rogers and the American dream,
University of Missouri Press, 1970

Bryant, Anita
Amazing grace,
Revell, 1971

Bless this house,
Revell, 1972

Fishers of men,
Revell, 1972

Bryant, Anita (Cont.)

Mine eyes have seen the glory,
Bantam, 1972

Mine eyes have seen the glory,
Revell, 1970

Bryant, Scarlett Kidd, 1942-

Under the Parker tree,
Oklahoma City, c1970

Buhite, Russell D.

Patrick J. Hurley and American foreign policy,
Cornell University Press, 1973

Campbell, Harry Modean

John Dewey,
Twayne, c1971

William Faulkner: a critical appraisal,
by Harry Modean Campbell and Ruel E. Foster,
Cooper Square Publishers, 1970, c1951

Campbell, John Morgan, 1922-

Effective communications for the technical man,
by John M. Campbell and G. L. Farrar,
Petroleum Publishing Co., 1972

"The technically trained man seldom fails because of technical incompetence. Rather, he fails because of his inability to communicate his ideas to others. Written by two practicing engineers, this book gives practical ideas by means of which the technical man can communicate orally and in writing with peers and supervisors."

The professional: from puberty to senility,
Norman, Okla., 1970

Campbell, Walter Stanley, 1887-1957 SEE Vestal, Stanley, pseud.

Capps, Benjamin, 1922-

Trail to Ogallala,
New American Library, 1972

The true memoirs of Charley Blankenship; a novel,
Lippincott, 1972

The white man's road,
Ace Books, 1972

Woman of the people,
Fawcett World Library, 1971

Carleton, William Augustus, 1905-
The growth of the early church,
Convention Press, 1970

Carr, Donald Eaton, 1903-

The breath of life,
Berkley Pub. Corp., 1970

"With my background in research chemistry and living in Los Angeles both before and after smog, I was able to present the first popular scientific book on air pollution, which described several things not before realized, such as the relation between ozone and nitric oxide and the chronic effects of carbon monoxide poisoning. It is still useful."

The deadly feast of life,
Doubleday, 1971

"Covers the history of eating and food pollutants, as well as the history of poisons and has also been widely translated."

Death of the sweet waters,
Berkley Pub. Corp., 1971

"This book on water pollution is unusual in that it presents the subject in historical context, going back to Mesopotamia and Egypt, etc. It was voted one of the most important 20 books of the year by the American Library Association and was an alternate on the Book of the Month Club. Parts ran in the Atlantic Monthly and parts have been reprinted in various anthologies and textbooks."

The forgotten senses,
Doubleday, 1972

"Deals not only with unusual animal sensory capabilities but with the possibilities of ESP."

The sexes,
Doubleday, 1970

"Describes not only human and animal sex but the problem of population explosion. It was translated into various foreign languages, including Japanese."

Carson, Robert

Crossing the field, 1972

"I think that no two poems in my book were prompted by the same force. In compiling them into one volume I hoped that someone might find them interesting and perhaps inspirational, that they would communicate something to all who read them."

Casady, Klina E.

A romance of the soil: a tale of how love for the land brought about the re-development of Roger Mills County, Oklahoma,
Cheyenne, Okla., 1971

"I wrote this book so that oncoming generations might know the effort made by people to reclaim the soil of Roger Mills County, Okla., after the ravages of the Dust Bowl days of the 1930's."

- Caudle, Wilma
Words on the wind; poems
South and West, 1970
- Chesser, Cecil R., 1926-
Across the lonely years; the story of Jackson County,
Altus Printing Co., c1971
- Christy, Joseph Myron
The Hawks,
Wolverine Press, 1972
- Single-engine beechcrafts,
Sports Car Press, 1970
- Summon the stars,
A. S. Barnes & Co., 1970
- "In my case, I write books and magazine stories to satisfy a market. I'm a full-time professional.
I have no other source of income. Therefore, I write on contract or assignment only, and this means that what I write is largely dictated by what my editors and publishers want. In short, I write for money."
- Cimarron Valley Historical Society,
1973 Journal,
Cushing, Okla., c1973
- Clark, Catherine
God's wonderful gifts from "A" to "Z"; a storybook to color,
C. R. Gibson Co., c1970
- The lamb and the calf; a storybook to color,
C. R. Gibson Co., c1970
- Clark, Larry, 1943-
Tulsa,
c1971
- Clement, Evelyn (Geer), 1926-
Bibliographic control of nonprint media,
Edited by Pearce S. Grove and Evelyn G. Clement, American Library Association, 1972
- Clinton, Jeff, pseud. SEE Bickham, Jack M.
- Clytus, John, 1929-
Black man in red Cuba,
with Jane Rieker,
University of Miami Press, 1970

Colcord, Charles Francis, 1859-1934

The autobiography of Charles Francis Colcord, 1859-1934,
C. C. Helmerich, 1970

Collings, Ellsworth, 1887-

The 101 Ranch,

In collaboration with Alma Miller England,

Foreword by Glenn Shirley,

University of Oklahoma Press, 1971

Oklahoma history enticingly presented as a side dish to the amazing pot-pourri of the fabulous 101 Ranch, largest ranch of its kind in the world. At its height, the 101 Ranch was one of the greatest show places in America. And the relationship between the owners and the Ponca Indian tribe, whose land they leased, is unique in the history of Indian affairs.

Condry, Dorothea Douglass

Impressions, 1973

"This small volume is presented as a book of verse. It is presented, also, for the purpose of transmitting a bit of joy, a fresh insight, or a resolve to act. If it should bring just a smile to your lips or a few settled moments of personalized reflection, it will have had purpose."

Cones, Neal Layton

For the pleasures of the crucified Lord

(thoughts on my way to open a window), by Neal Layton,
Dorrance, 1972

"Most of the poems in the book were written when I was eighteen, they deal with growing in a world full of hang-ups, over active emotions, neurotic behavior. Its very hard to grow up today, even harder to stay right. An it's really up to the individual to find what he or she needs to survive--to live."

Cooper, Kenneth H.

Aerobics,

Bantam, 1972

Aerobics for women,

by Mildred Cooper and Kenneth H. Cooper,
Bantam, 1972

Aerobics for women,

by Mildred Cooper and Kenneth H. Cooper,
M. Evans, 1972

The new aerobics,

M. Evans Lippincott, Philadelphia, 1970

Cooper, Mildred
 Aerobics for women,
 by Mildred Cooper and Kenneth H. Cooper,
 Bantam, 1972

Aerobics for women,
 by Mildred Cooper and Kenneth H. Cooper
 M. Evans, 1972

Cox, Robert Sidney, 1918-
 The private practitioner in agriculture,
 Lake Worth, Fla., 1971

Crawford, Mike, 1952-1971

Poems,
 Oklahoma City, Mrs. Charles Schulte, 1973
Mike was the only young man from Dewar, Okla., lost in the war in Vietnam. These 18 poems were printed for his friends, by his mother.

"Mike's poetry causes one to realize that this young man had a sense of destiny and an insight into human feelings far beyond most of us."

Criswell, Wallie A.
 Expository notes on the Gospel of Matthew,
 Zondervan, 1970

Expository sermons on the book of Daniel,
 Zondervan, 1970-71

Look up, brother! The buoyant assertion of what's right with us,
 Broadman Press, 1970

The scarlet thread through the Bible,
 Broadman Press, 1971, c1970

Crockett, Norman L.

A new order in the world,
 by Norman L. Crockett and Ronald K. Snell,
 University of Oklahoma Press, 1973

"The central theme of this collection of articles on selected topics of American history from early colonial times to the Civil War illustrates the irony of America's history: the struggle to create a novel and stable social order has been accompanied by challenges to authority, order, privilege, and tradition, that made the achievement of the goal difficult, if not impossible."

Croft, Carolyn June (Bauer)

Selected public elementary school resources centers in Oklahoma as compared to Standards for school media programs,
 Stillwater, Okla., 1972

Culp, John H.

Born of the sun,
Popular Library, 1972

Bright feathers,
Ballantine Books, 1970

Oh, valley green!
Holt, Rinehart and Winston, 1972

The restless land,
Popular Library, 1972

The treasure of the Chisos,
Holt, Rinehart and Winston, 1971

Treasure of the Chisos,
Popular Library, 1972

"Having on hand much oral and written tradition of my ancestors from the period of the Old West, I have used some of this in Oh, Valley Green!, as well as in my earlier novels. Those of us who are relatively near this period should preserve its anecdotes, manners, and customs as a source for future writers. Although present writers are a hundred years from that period, think of the difficulty of the honest writer another hundred years from now!"

Davis, Robert Murray

Evelyn Waugh: a checklist of primary and secondary material, by Robert Murray Davis, et. al.
Whitston Pub. Co., 1972

Modern British short novels,
Scott, Foresman, 1972

Steinbeck; a collection of critical essays,
Prentice-Hall, 1972

Davison, Meredith, ed.

The behavioral effects of drugs,
Edited by Meredith Davison and Douglas Matheson, Holt, 1972

Day, Beth (Feagles) 1924-

All my children, by Jacqui L. Schiff and Beth Day,
M. Evans, 1970

"This subject--a revolutionary treatment for young schizophrenics--was assigned me by the publisher, who felt it would make a valuable addition to information about an illness which strikes one in ten American families."

I'm done crying, by Louanne Ferris,
Edited by Beth Day,
New American Library, 1970

Day, Beth (Feagles), 1924- (Cont.)

Life on a lost continent; a natural history of New Zealand, Doubleday, 1971

"This little book was my personal valentine to an enchanting country in the hopes that those who will never see its beauty can enjoy it with me."

Sexual life between blacks and whites, World, 1972

"This three-year project was my own exploration and evaluation of the racial history of America, how we got that way, and where we are today."

Debo, Angie, 1890-

And still the waters run: the betrayal of the Five Civilized Tribes, Princeton University Press, 1972

A history of the Indians of the United States, University of Oklahoma Press, 1970

"When I gave a course on Indian history at a summer institute at the University of Oklahoma, my students said, 'Can't we have copies of your lectures?' And so I wrote the book. There are many fine studies in special fields, but I hope this overall survey is proving useful."

De Noya, Mary Musselwhite

Avalanche of time, Dorrance, 1971

"Having always had an intense love and loyalty for the South, I began to consider how it might have been had the Confederacy emerged as victor in the War between the States. Hence my book, Avalanche of time. It presents that great conflict from a new, and very different viewpoint."

Dent, Lester SEE page 65

Dorris, Troy Clyde, 1918-

Chemical and thermal characteristics of Keystone Reservoir, Management Information Services, 1969 or 70

Drake, Laurie Nan

The long road, Dorrance, 1970, c1969

Duncan, Robert Lipscomb, 1927-

The day the sun fell, Morrow, 1970

Dunham, Lowell, 1910- ed.

The cardinal points of Borges, Edited by Lowell Dunham and Ivar Ivask, University of Oklahoma Press, 1971

Edwards, Gerald Patrick, 1939-

The Gilcrease-Hargrett catalogue of imprints,
University of Oklahoma Press, 1972

Edwards, H. Wayne

Kalender kreatureures,

"Kalender kreatureures was written to show how egg shells could be used through the year not only at Easter time."

Karton kuties,
Naylor Co., 1971

"Karton kuties was written in hopes that it would help boys and girls in their creativeness, using materials that most people have around the house."

Edwards, Marvin Henry

Hazardous to your health; a new look at the "health care crisis" in America,
Arlington House, 1972

Elliott, David M., 1936- ed.

Education and research in the nuclear fuel cycle,
Edited by David M. Elliott and Lynn E. Weaver,
University of Oklahoma Press, 1972

Ellison, Ralph, 1914-

From invisible man. In Blackamerican literature, 1760-present, comp. by Ruth Miller,
Glencoe Press, 1971

Hidden name and complex fate. In backgrounds to Blackamerican literature, comp. by Ruth Miller,
Chandler Pub. Co., 1971

Shadow and act,
Random House, 1972

The world and the jug. In five black writers,
Edited by Donald B. Gibson,
New York University Press, 1970

Ellison, Rosemary Love, 1938-

Contemporary southern Plains Indian painting,
With an essay by Rosemary Ellison. Edited by Myles Libhart,
Oklahoma Indian Arts and Craft Cooperative, 1972

England, Alma (Miller) 1875-

The 101 Ranch,
by Ellsworth Collings, in collaboration with Alma Miller England. Foreword by Glenn Shirley,
University of Oklahoma Press, 1971

- Epple, Jess C., 1908-
Custer's Battle of the Washita and a history of the Plains Indian tribes,
Exposition Press, 1970
- Everett, Mark Reuben, 1899-
Medical education in Oklahoma; the University of Oklahoma School of Medicine and Medical Center, 1900-1931,
University of Oklahoma Press, 1972
"To fill the need for a comprehensive history of the University Medical Center, to preserve early accomplishments and dispel erroneous traditions. Here the reader can follow the development of medical education and of the earlier components of a great Medical Center, despite political discouragements and restrictions of funds."
- Fall, Thomas, pseud. SEE Snow, Donald Clifford, 1917-
- Farrar, Gerald Leland, 1921-
Effective communications for the technical man,
by John M. Campbell and G. L. Farrar,
Petroleum Pub. Co., 1972
- Faulconer, Estelle
Oklahoma; the story of its past and present,
by Edwin C. McReynolds, Alice Marriott, and Estelle
Faulconer. Rev. ed.
University of Oklahoma Press, 1971
- Faulk, Odie B.
Arizona: a short history,
University of Oklahoma Press, 1970
- The leather jacket soldier: Spanish military equipment and institutions of the late 18th century, Socio-Technical Publications, 1971
- The Mexican War: changing interpretations,
Edited with Joe Stout, Swallow Press, 1973
- North America divided: the Mexican War, 1846-1848,
by Seymour V. Connor and Odie B. Faulk,
Oxford University Press, 1971
"Nominated for Pulitzer Prize; Western Heritage Award, best non-fiction Western book of the Year, Cowboy Hall of Fame."
- Tombstone: myth and reality,
Oxford University Press, 1972
- "I wrote these books as part of my continuing love affair with the history of the American Southwest, and to improve my competence as a professor teaching the history of the American West at Oklahoma State University. I hope the reader has as much fun reading them as I did writing them."

Feiler, Seymour, tr.
Baghdad; metropolis of the Abbasid caliphate,
by Gaston Wiet,
University of Oklahoma Press, 1971

Finney, T. M.

Pioneer days with the Osage Indians west of '96,
by Wahshowahgaley,
Osage County Historical Society, 1972

Fite, Gilbert Courtland, 1918-

Economic history of the United States, by G. C. Fite and J. E. Reese, 3rd ed., Houghton-Mifflin, 1973

Recent United States history,
by Gilbert C. Fite and Norman A. Graebner, Ronald Press Co., 1972

Flasch, Joy

Melvin B. Tolson,
Twayne Publishers, 1972

Franklin, John Hope, 1915-

Crusade for justice: the autobiography of Ida B.
Wells, ed. by Alfreda M. Duster and John H. Franklin,
Chicago Univ. Press, 1972

Defending the cornerstone. In backgrounds to Blackamerican literature, comp. by Ruth Miller,
Chandler Pub. Co., 1971

Free Negro in North Carolina, 1790-1860,
Norton, 1971

An illustrated history of Black Americans,
Time-Life Books, 1970

Militant South, 1800-1861, Rev. ed.,
Harvard Univ. Press, 1970

Reminiscences of an active life; the autobiography of John Roy Lynch, ed. by John Hope Franklin, University of Chicago Press, 1970

French, Dorothy Kayser

A try at tumbling,
Lippincott, 1970

"Increasingly, and in tremendous numbers, girls are participating in competitive sports, yet sports books have been written almost exclusively about boys.
Both Swim to victory and A try at tumbling (about gymnastics) have a girl as chief character. Mystery of the Old oil well was a newcomer's tribute to Okla."

Frings, Hubert, 1914-

Concepts of zoology, by Hubert Frings and Mable Frings,
Macmillan, 1970

"This is a textbook for courses in introductory zoology. We have tried to keep it relatively free from specialized terminology and definitions, suitable for non-biology majors. A general reader might, therefore, find it useful for information about how biologists regard man in the world of life."

Frings, Mable

Concepts of zoology,
by Hubert Frings and Mable Frings,
Macmillan, 1970

Fry, Maggie Culver, 1900-

The umbilical cord,
Windfall Press, 1971

"These poems came to me, a mere recorder, like songs given by an impelling spirit. Later, I polished and compiled them. Fragments from my moments of truth, they express the voice of honesty as I know it, and should therefore help others. I had to write this book."

Fulton, William Ray, 1905-

Evaluative checklist: an instrument for self-evaluating an educational media program in school systems and colleges,
University of Oklahoma, 1970

Gardner, Martin, 1914-

Codes, ciphers and secret writing,
Simon & Schuster, 1973

Sixth book of mathematical games from Scientific American,
W. H. Freeman, 1971

Space puzzles,
Simon and Schuster, 1971

Garland, Marie, 1898-

The Chickasaw loves and allied families,
Ardmore Photocopy Co., 1970

"I wrote this book in response to requests from many descendants who learned of my interviews and research in the 1930's. It is a genealogy and gives some history of citizens who were influential in Chickasaw tribal affairs from Revolutionary days until Oklahoma statehood."

Geiogamah, Hanay

Body Indian; a play,
1972

Getty, Jean Paul, 1892-

How to be a successful executive,
Playboy Pr., 1971

Gibbons, Lulu, comp.

Indian recipes from Cherokee Indians of eastern Oklahoma,
Hoffman Printing Co., 1970

Gibson, Arrell Morgan

The Canadian River Valley,
Teachers College Press, 1971

The Chickasaws,

University of Oklahoma Press, 1971

"Writing The Chickasaws provided a window of understanding on several crucial and timely themes, particularly man and nature. I treasure the opportunity to present to the reading public the life story of one of America's most colorful Indian communities, the Chickasaw Nation. The tragedy of the Chickasaw chronicle must tug at the American conscience."

Harlow's Oklahoma history, 6th ed.,
Harlow Pub. Corp., c1972

Wilderness bonanza: the Tri-State District of Missouri, Kansas, and Oklahoma,
University of Oklahoma Press, 1972

"One of America's richest mining frontiers evolved in northeast Oklahoma as a segment of the fabulous Tri-State District. Readers will find in Wilderness Bonanza that mining camp drama, action and fortune-making opportunities characteristic of the mining frontier throughout the American West, flourished in the mother lode region of the Sooner state."

Gilbreath, Alice

Beginning crafts for beginning readers,
Follett Publishing Co., 1972

Spouts, lids, and cans--fun with familiar metal objects,
Wm. Morrow & Co., Inc., 1973

"These books were written to develop creative ability in young minds and coordination in young fingers. They should be very useful for scouts, day camps, school and home. Each craft is designed to be made by a reader of the specific age group with no adult help."

Gould, Chester

The celebrated cases of Dick Tracy, 1931-1951,
Chelsea House, 1970

Collected works of Dick Tracy,
Random, 1970

Green, Charles Price

Lariat laughter, and other poems,
Mitre P., 1970

Grove, Fred

The child stealers,
Doubleday, 1973

"This novel was written to throw light on the little-known traffic in white captives, mostly Texas women and children, that occurred on the Southwestern frontier. The cruel bartering for human lives in which white men figured as well as some Indians. The setting is Fort Washita and the Red River country on the eve of the Civil War."

Land seekers,
Ballantine Books, 1970

War journey,
Doubleday, 1971

"An American artist whose purpose is to paint Southwestern Indians in their primitive state is captured by Kiowas and made a slave. In learning to know these wild ones he also discovers himself. Included is a ride down the Comanche War Trail. The novel was written primarily to provide an understanding of Plains Indian life during the difficult transitional period after the Civil War."

War path, In With guidons flying, comp. by Charles N. Heckelman,
Doubleday, 1970

Gulick, Bill SEE Gulick, Grover C.

Gulick, Grover C.

The country club caper, by Bill Gulick,
Doubleday, 1971

Hungry land, by Bill Gulick,
Paperback Library, 1970

Liveliest town in the West, by Bill Gulick,
Popular Library, 1970

Snake River country, by Bill Gulick,
Caxton Printers, 1971

"Snake River country is a large, profusely illustrated book, dealing with the Northwestern part of the United States, in the early 1800's, and the Fur Companies' struggle to control certain rich areas for trading with the Indians and to establish trading posts. It was a dog-eat-dog struggle between the American, the British and the French, entertainingly told."

Tear up the orders, by Bill Gulick,
In With guidons flying, comp. by Charles N.
Heckelmann,
Doubleday, 1971

Gunning, I. C., 1897-

The Butterfield Overland Mail through eastern Oklahoma,
Eastern Oklahoma Historical Society Pub. no. 1,
Latimer County News Tribune, 1971

The Edwards store,
Eastern Oklahoma Historical Society Pub. no. 2,
Latimer County News Tribune, 1972

Prehistoric people of eastern Oklahoma and their culture,
Eastern Oklahoma Historical Society Pub. no. 3,
Latimer County News Tribune, 1972

Guthrie, Woody, 1912-1967

This land is your land. In This land was made for you and me, ed. by Maureen P. Collins,
Hawthorn Books, 1972

Hager, Jean

The secret of Riverside Farm,
Steck-Vaughn Co., 1970

"This juvenile novel bespeaks my love for the Oklahoma farm where I live. It also revolves around one of the most fascinating periods of Southwest history, the period of the mound building Indians. The mound builders remain in large part a mystery, even to the archeologists and historians. No one knows for certain where they came from or where they went."

The whispering house,
Steck-Vaughn Co., 1970

"This juvenile novel resulted from two things--a fascinating old house and an interest in Kansas history. The real house near Norwich, Kansas, became the Whispering House in the book, and it became home to a retired Shakespearean actor and three orphaned children, all four of who were lonely and needed each other. The period of Kansas history involved is the time called 'Bloody Kansas' just prior to the Civil War."

Haldeman, Joe W.

War year,
Holt, Rinehart and Winston, 1972

"Without grinding any philosophical axes, here is the story of John's war year. He tells of his training--the processes by which a normal person is pushed into the mold of a combat soldier; of his comrades--from every part of America; of his duties--often arbitrary, sometimes gruesome; and of his reactions under fire. Realistic in language and outlook, this is essential reading for anyone who has ever wondered what it is like for those who serve."

Hall, Ennen Reaves

Break the glass wall,
Word Books, 1971

"Break the glass wall was loved before it was written. My sole purpose in writing it was to share the aid and comfort my faith has given me with others following the same paths. To give life to the words of St. John, 'God is Love.'"

Reluctant angel,
Word Books, reprint, 1973

"Reluctant Angel was meant to be a memorial to my deceased mother, even though only a small portion is based on fact. It is, I like to think a tribute to all the pioneer women who helped build the great state of Oklahoma by keeping alive the faith on which it was founded."

Hall, Theodore Byron, 1902-

Oklahoma Indian Territory, by Ted Byron Hall,
American Reference Publishers, c1971

Hamburger, Roberta

An index of festschriften in religion,
Compiled by John L. Sayre and Roberta Hamburger,
Phillips University Seminary Press, 1970

Hammonds, Michael

Concerning the death of Charlie Bowman,
Doubleday, 1971

Hanes, Bailey C.

The new complete bulldog,
Howell Book House, 1973

"My latest book, The new complete bulldog, to be released soon. It is recommended for dog lovers and potential dog lovers."

Hargrett, Lester, 1902-1962

The Gilcrease-Hargrett catalogue of imprints,
University of Oklahoma Press, 1972

Harris, Fred Roy, 1930-

Man must laugh. In Recreation and leisure service for the disadvantaged, ed. by John Arthur Nesbitt, et. al.,
Lea & Febiger, 1970

Now is the time; a new Populist call to action,
McGraw-Hill, 1971

Social science and national policy,
Edited by Fred R. Harris,
Aldine Pub. Co., 1970

Harris, Fred Roy, 1930- (Cont.)
 Social science and national policy,
 Edited by Fred R. Harris,
 Transaction Books, 1970?

The state of the cities; report, by Commission on the Cities in the '70's. Senator Fred R. Harris and Mayor John V. Lindsay, cochairmen, with staff papers,
 Praeger Publishers, 1972

Harris, Marilyn Hatter Fox,
 Random House, 1973

"Hatter Fox was the result of wondering why so many contemporary authors refuse to look at the American Indian beyond the Nineteenth century. Unfortunately, in the course of research, I found the answer to my question, and Hatter Fox, Navajo, circa 1973, was born."

The peppersalt land,
 Four Winds Press, 1970

"The peppersalt land concerns the deep relationship between a black girl and a white girl, and what happens to that relationship when it is struck by the tumult of present racial strife."

The runaway's diary,
 Four Winds Press, c1971

"The runaway's diary emerged out of the concern for the increasing numbers of runaways in this country, dwelling primarily on the questions, why are they running away, and what are they searching for?"

Harrod, Howard L., 1932-
 Mission among the Blackfeet,
 University of Oklahoma Press, 1971

"I suppose that the major reasons why I wrote
Mission among the Blackfeet, relate to my childhood and youth in Oklahoma. I was born in Holdenville, and during my years in that community I became quite interested in the local history and lore of the tribes in the vicinity. Then, as an adult, I became interested in the general history of the American Indian, his place and fate in our society.
 I focused this interest in the question of the extent to which Christian missions had been both a positive and negative influence upon the Indian."

Hart, Carolyn G.
 Danger: high explosives!
 M. Evans, 1972

Dangerous summer,
 Scholastic Book Services, 1972

Hart, Carolyn G. (Cont.)

No easy answers,
M. Evans, 1970

Rendezvous in Veracruz,
M. Evans, 1970

"To date all my books are juvenile mysteries. I write to entertain and feel I have succeeded if any readers enjoy them for an hour or two. I write books because it is fun and tough to do."

Harvey, Paul SEE Aurandt, Paul Harvey, 1918-

Hawks, Josephine Stackhouse
Out of the infinite,
Dorrance, 1973

Hayden, Donald E., ed.

Classics in semantics, ed. by Donald E. Hayden and
E. Paul Alworth,
Books for Libraries Press, 1970, cl965

Henderson, George, 1932-

America's other children; public schools outside suburbia,
University of Oklahoma Press, 1971

Foundations of American education,
by William B. Ragan and George Henderson,
Harper & Row, 1970

Teachers should care: social perspectives of teaching, by George Henderson and Robert F. Bibens,
Harper & Row, 1970

To live in freedom; human relations today and tomorrow,
University of Oklahoma Press, 1972

Henderson, Ron, ed.

The image maker,
John Knox Press, 1971

Hifler, Joyce

All rivers run to the sea,
Doubleday, 1971

Hill, James Julian, 1892-

Old Cherokee families: "old families and their genealogy," by Emmet Starr. 2nd ed. With a comprehensive index comp. by J. J. Hill,
University of Oklahoma Foundation, 1972

Hill, Weldon, pseud.
 Jefferson McGraw,
 Morrow, 1972

Lonesome traveler,
 Avon Books, 1972

Lonesome traveler,
 D. McKay Co., 1970

Hillerman, Tony

The blessing way,
 Harper, 1970

"The blessing way, which takes place on the Navajo Reservation and concerns Navajo values and beliefs, grew in some part out of my growing up in Pottawatomie County with Indian friends and playmates."

The boy who made dragonfly,
 Harper & Row, 1973

"The boy who made dragonfly is a retelling of an ancient Zuni myth which I ran across while researching another book which is set on the Zuni reservation."

The fly on the wall,
 Harper & Row, 1971

"The fly on the wall, which uses the Oklahoma State capitol building as much of its setting, grew in part from experiences there as a political reporter for United Press."

Hinton, Susan E.

That was then, this is now,
 Dell Pub. Co., 1972

That was then, this is now,
 Viking Press, 1971

Hobbs, Herschel Harold, 1907-

The Baptist faith and message,
 Baker Book House, 1971

The cosmic drama; an exposition of the Book of Revelation,
 Word Books, 1971

An exposition of the Gospel of Mark,
 Baker Book House, 1970

The Gospel of Mark; a study manual,
 Baker Book House, 1971

How to follow Jesus; the challenge of Hebrews for Christian life and witness today,
 Broadman Press, 1971

Hobbs, Herschel Harold, 1907- (Cont.)

Showers of blessings,
Baker Book House, 1973

The third order of man,
Word Books, 1973

"My writing experience has been a satisfying form of self-expressions, growing out of almost one-half century of intensive Bible study, teaching, and preaching. It is my hope that readers will derive a better and deeper understanding of the Bible from these books. I have written 47 books for publication since 1951, and I am currently writing one other."

Hollingsworth, Dan

Rocks in the roadway,
Oklahoma City, Distributed by Charles S. Greaves,
c1971

Hope, Thomas Welborn, 1903-

The great river and small, and other poems,
by Welborn Hope,
University of Oklahoma Press, c1970

"I was privileged to catch some of the panorama of sights, sounds and moods that carry us along the rushing channel of America, particularly of the Southwest. I offer you the pictures in close-up view, I hope."

Howard, Domer Lawton

Sonnets from Pierrot to Columbine,
Dorrance, 1971

"This book was written for all of the inarticulate, depressed clowns of the world who, having read it, hopefully may each find the courage to change the painted grin to a buoyant smile!"

Howard, R. Palmer

Cherokee history to 1840: a medical view, reprinted from the Journal of the Oklahoma State Medical Association, c1970

Howland, Marguerite (Smith), 1915-1972

The historian's handbook; a descriptive guide to reference works, by Helen J. Poulton, with the assistance of Marguerite S. Howland,
University of Oklahoma Press, 1972

This pioneering one-volume handbook lists finding aids available to historians...

...it is an invaluable source book for researchers
in the social-science disciplines.

Hoyt, Alta (Howard) 1881-

We were pioneers,
Wichita, Kan., Distributed by Mrs. Howard Hoyt,
Stillwater, Okla., 1971

"This book is based on entries in my mother's journal kept since she was 15 years old. Therefore, it is not dependent entirely on the memory of a 91 year old pioneer woman. My father and mother served 35 years in Africa as missionaries for The Friends Church."

Hubbell, Joe, 1920-

A history of the Oklahoma Education Association, 1945-1956,
Stillwater, Okla., 1970

Huff, Afton P.

The key to Hawthorn Heath,
Berkley Pub., 1972

The silent message,
Steck-Vaughn Co., 1970

"The silent message, and The key to Hawthorn Heath, are both suspense mysteries written to entertain. My familiar background of deafness and associated skills are perhaps my motive to prove no handicap is defeating. Lip-reading is the gimmick used to solve the mystery in both books, and a Scottish heritage adds color to characters and settings for my work."

Hunt, David C., 1935-

The art of the Old West, from the collection of the Gilcrease Institute. Selections and text by Paul A. Rossi and David C. Hunt, Knopf, 1971

Hurst, Kenneth

Major difference in Federal and Oklahoma income tax laws, by Kenneth Hurst and John Carl Wood, Oklahoma Society of Certified Public Accountants, 1970

Ironside, Roberta Louise

An adventure called Skelly; a history of Skelly Oil Company through 50 years, 1919-1969, Appleton-Century-Crofts, c1970

Ivask, Ivar, 1927- ed.

The cardinal points of Borges,
Edited by Lowell Dunham and Ivar Ivask,
University of Oklahoma Press, 1971

Jackson, Berenice, ed.

History of Beaver County,
Beaver County Historical Society, Inc., 1971

Jenkins, Marie M., 1909-

Animals without parents,
Holiday House, 1970

The curious mollusks,
Holiday House, 1972

"Animals without parents presents a wide variety of kinds of asexual reproduction. Emphasis in The curious mollusks is on behavioral characteristics of living animals. Both books (ages 12 up) have been well researched and should provide scientifically accurate information that, in many instances, is little known."

Jenkins, William Miller, 1856-1941

Political death by assassin's bullet,
by W. W. Jenkins,
Dingerson Press, 1970

Jenkins, William Wilson, 1883-

Political death by assassin's bullet,
by W. W. Jenkins, from the personal papers of William M. Jenkins,
Dingerson Press, 1970

Johnson, Burdette Feye (Beebe), 1920-

Little Dickens, jaguar cub, by B. F. Beebe,
McKay, 1970

Jones, Juanita Simpson

Heartbreak and happiness,
Cordell, Okla., 1971

"This book was written so there would be a record left for posterity. Telling the true story of early day families, towns, churches, schools, homes, weddings, crops, recreation, and food, in the eastern part of Washita County. Sixteen pages of pictures. It is interesting and enlightening."

Jones, Stephen

Atlas of Oklahoma political maps, 1907-1970,
Enid, Okla., 1972

Jordan, Nell Sutton, 1905-
The doctor's daughters,
Naylor Co., 1972

"I wrote my book as a tribute to my father who practiced medicine in Elizabeth, Arkansas, and Prague and Milfay, Oklahoma in the early days of the century. I also wished to preserve something of the customs and way of life of those times. I believe readers will be amused at some of the stories, and many will be surprised to learn that poor people can be happy and healthy."

Kaywaykla, James, ca. 1873-1963

In the days of Victorio; recollections of a Warm Springs Apache, by Eve Ball. James Kaywaykla, narrator, University of Arizona Press, 1970

Keith, Harold, 1903-
The bluejay boarders,
Crowell, 1972

Brief garland,
Crowell, 1971

Crying substitute,
T. Nelson, 1972

Go, Red, go!
T. Nelson, 1972

The runt of Rogers School,
Lippincott, 1971

Keith, Joanne, ed.

A pioneer history of Shattuck,
Co-editors: Donna Baker and Noma Sprague, Shattuck, Okla., available from the Shattuck Library,
c1970

Kelleam, Joseph E., 1913-
Days beyond number,
Dorrance, 1971

"Days beyond number, my sixth book, is a volume of poetry. Why does anyone write poetry? It's a sampling of poems selected from younger days to the present. It's a record of sights, sounds, thoughts and experiences. Sort of a 'He Passed this Way' collection---or a 'Protest in Passing.'"

Kelly, Helen Willow child,
South and West, 1972

Kimmerer, Neil B., 1918-
 To get and beget,
 Vantage Press, c1971

King, Hiram Burris
 Memoirs of Judge Hiram Burris Kind,
 Naylor Co., 1973

Kirkpatrick, Samuel A.
 The social psychology of political life.
 Edited by Samuel A. Kirkpatrick and Lawrence Pettit
 Duxbury Press, 1972
 "This book is aimed at upper division undergraduates in political science studying various aspects of political attitudes and behavior. The book is basically an anthology with brief accompanying text material covering such topics as personality attributes, social structure, political culture, political socialization, perception, organization and change in political belief systems and political motivation. It incorporates a framework from social psychology to organize topics relevant to the study of political behavior."

Urban political analysis: a systems approach.
 Edited by David R. Morgan and Samuel A. Kirkpatrick,
 Free Press, 1972

"This book is directed to undergraduate and graduate students in political science with a special interest in urban politics. It contains a series of essays by prominent political scientists as well as substantial text material on a variety of components in the urban system, including the urban environment, public opinion and political involvement, urban decision-making and bureaucratic structures and urban policy outputs. It is the first book of its kind to bring together empirical studies on urban politics organized in a systems framework."

Knepper, Verna Weiser
 My papa's daughter,
 Naylor, 1971

Krakel, Dean Fenton, 1923-
 Tom Ryan, a painter in Four Sixes country,
 Northland Press, c1971
 "Outside of my own vanity, there have been few excuses for the five books I have authored. I'm surprised in looking back that I had the tenacity to do them and that some publisher would be foolish enough to print them."

- Lafferty, Raphael Aloysius
 Arrive at Easterwine,
 Scribner, 1971
- The fall of Rome,
 Doubleday, 1971
- The flame is green,
 Walker & Co., 1971
- Ishmael into the barrens. In Four futures; four original novellas of science fiction,
 Hawthorn Books, 1971
- Nine hundred grandmothers,
 Ace Pub. Corp., c1970
- Okla Hannali,
 Doubleday, 1972
- Strange doings,
 Scribner, 1972
- LaGrone, Oliver, 1915-
 This hour (written after war). In The poetry of the Negro, 1746-1970, ed. by Langston Hughes and Arna Bontemps. New rev. ed.,
 Doubleday, 1970
- Laklan, Carli, pseud.
 Migrant girl,
 McGraw-Hill, 1970
- Serving in the Peace Corps,
 Doubleday, 1970
- L'Amour, Louis, 1908- See comments on page 64
 Broken gun,
 Bantam, 1971
- The burning hills,
 Bantam, 1972
- Daybreakers,
 Bantam, 1970
- Desert road,
 Bantam, 1972
- Eight novels of the magnificent Sackett family:
 The daybreakers; Sackett; Lando; Mojave crossing;
 Mustang man; The Sackett brand; The lonely man;
 The sky-liners,
 Bantam, 1972
- First fast draw,
 Bantam, 1970
- Flint,
 Bantam, 1971

- L'Amour, Louis, 1908- (Cont.)
Galloway,
Bantam, c1970
- Heller with a gun,
Fawcett World, 1971
- High graders,
Bantam, 1970
- Hondo,
Fawcett World, 1971
- Key-lock man,
Bantam, 1970
- Killoe,
Bantam, 1973
- Kilrone,
Bantam, 1970
- Last stand at Papago Wells,
Fawcett World, 1971
- The man called Noon,
Bantam, 1971, c1970
- North to the rails,
Bantam, c1971
- Radigan,
Bantam, 1972
- Reilly's luck,
Bantam, c1970
- Sackett,
Bantam, 1971
- Sackett brand,
Bantam, 1971
- Showdown at Yellow Butte,
Ace Pub. Corp.
- Silver canyon,
Bantam, 1972
- Sky-liners,
Bantam, 1972
- Tall stranger,
Fawcett Publications, 1970
- To tame a land,
Fawcett World, 1971
- Utah Blane,
by Jim Mayo, pseud.,
Ace Pub. Corp., 1971

- Larsen, Jackie A.
Beyond this colored glass,
Carlton Press, c1970
- Laughlin, Virginia Carli, 1907- SEE Laklan, Carli, pseud.
- Laune, Paul
America's quarter horses,
Doubleday, 1973
- Layton, Neal SEE Cones, Neal Layton
- Lewis, Mark F., ed.
Current research in marijunana,
Academic Press, 1973
- Lipscomb, Perry Doddridge, 1895-
The C.P.A. exam. Rev. ed.,
Arco Pub. Co., 1971, c1963
- Litton, Gaston L.
History of education for librarianship in Colombia,
by Richard Krzys and Gaston Litton,
Scarecrow Press, 1969, i.e. 1970
- Lottinville, Savoie, 1906- ed.
Soldier in the West...Edited by Robert V. Hine and Savoice Lottinville,
University of Oklahoma Press, 1972
- Love, Paula McSpadden, comp.
The Will Rogers book,
Texian Press, 1972, c1971
- Lucas, Jim Griffing, 1914-1970
Agnew: profile in conflict,
Award Books; distributed by Scribner, 1970
- Luke, Ray
Concerto for bassoon and orchestra; solo bassoon,
Oxford University Press, c1971
- Malthaner, Johannes, tr.
Indian skin paintings from the American Southwest,
by Gottfried Hotz,
University of Oklahoma Press, 1970

Marriott, Alice Lee, 1910-

American epic: the story of the American Indian,
by Alice Marriott and Carol K. Rachlin,
New American Library, 1970

American epic; the story of the American Indian,
by Alice Marriott and Carol K. Rachlin,
Putnam, 1970, cl969

American Indian mythology,
by Alice Marriott and Carol K. Rachlin,
New American Library, 1972

Negro Indians, by Carol K. Rachlin and Alice Marriott.
Paper presented to the 19th annual meeting of the American Society for Ethnohistory, 1971

Oklahoma: the forty-sixth star,
by Alice Marriott and Carol K. Rachlin,
Doubleday, 1973

"We wrote this book as an anecdotal account of the history of Oklahoma because we wanted people to better understand our state and the people who made it. The reader will enjoy the factual material and the personal incidents that make this book. It is a book of 'the peoples' of the state rather than a formal history."

Oklahoma; the story of its past and present,
by Edwin C. McReynolds, Alice Marriott, and Estelle
Faulconer. Rev. ed.,
University of Oklahoma Press, 1971

Peyote,
by Alice Marriott and Carol K. Rachlin,
Crowell, 1971

"We wrote this volume to show the seriousness of the Peyote Religion (Native American Church). We wished to make the point that peyote is not taken as a narcotic but as a sacrament. The reader can profit by this book because, we believe, he will get a firm foundation of the beliefs and ceremony of the Peyote Religion which will replace rumor and myths."

Peyote,
by Alice Marriott and Carol K. Rachlin,
New American Library, 1972

Marshburn, Joseph H., 1890-

Blood and knavery: a collection of English Renaissance pamphlets and ballads of crime and sin,
by Joseph H. Marshburn and Alan R. Velie, Fairleigh Dickinson Univ. Press, 1972

"Motivation of my book resulted from the development of modern printing, the appearance for the first time of professional writing and the formation of a body of popular literature based on recorded contemporary events relating the daily life of the people, in the form of ballads, pamphlets and plays during the Tudor period, the most important era of English literature."

Marshburn, Joseph H., 1890- (Cont.)

Murder & witchcraft in England, 1550-1640, as recounted in pamphlets, ballads, broadsides, & plays, University of Oklahoma Press, 1972, c1971

Martin, Allie Beth

A strategy for public library change: proposed public library goals-feasibility study, Public Library Association, American Library Association, 1972

"Written in response to a need expressed by many librarians for stated goals of public libraries. This publication summarizes identified needs of society, the potential of libraries to meet these needs and problems which must be overcome if goals are to be achieved. The book provides a basis for action and concentrates on how to achieve change. Each reader must determine for himself, 'change to what?'"

Masters, Hardin Wallace, 1899- ed.

Edgar Lee Masters; a centenary memoir-anthology, A. S. Barnes for the Poetry Society of America, 1972

"As the elder son of the author of Spoon River Anthology, I was persuaded by friends to select his poems that he liked the best. To them I added a foreword. The book is a biographical sketch of many youthful memories of my lawyer-poet father and should interest students of Edgar Lee Masters."

Matthews, Clayton

Bounty hunt at Ballarat, Pinnacle Books, 1972

Matthews, Don Q.

The design of the management information system, Auerbach, 1971

Maynard, Louis Jackson, 1900-

Down the river, Naylor Co., 1971

"Down the river was written to familiarize people with the life of early day settlers in Oklahoma, and to show the importance of soil conservation practices and pollution control."

Oklahoma Panhandle; a history and stories of No Man's Land. 2nd ed., 1972, c1956

"Oklahoma Panhandle, a history and stories of No Man's Land, was written because of my interest in the long narrow strip of land that runs west between Texas on the south and Kansas and Colorado on the north, to the New Mexico line. I wanted to know why it was called 'The Neutral Strip', and 'No Man's Land'."

Mayo, Jim, pseud. SEE L'Amour, Louis, 1908-

McAnally, Arthur Monroe, 1911-1972

Status of the university librarian in the academic community. In Research librarianship; essays in honor of Robert B. Downs. Edited by Jerrold Orne, R. R. Bowker Co., 1971

It is heartening to see the growing concern of young librarians with major social problems of our times, and their active efforts, beginning at Atlantic City in 1969, to reshape professional associations. It is a pleasure to see them, action oriented, alert, eager, confident and fearless.

McBride, Gertrude, comp.

The history of Mountain View, Kiowa County, Okla., 1899-1970, Mountain View News, 1970

McCarville, Mike

Okie,
Colorgraphics, c1970

"Okie was written because I believed Oklahomans have an extra-ordinary sense of history and a special appreciation for it, and whatever the word has come to mean, it is historic. The book was not intended as a defense of the word, but as a chronological record of its uses."

McConnico, Charles T.

The medical transcriptionist handbook,
Thomas, 1972

MuCune, Edward H.

American parade,
Naylor Co., 1971

"American parade is a quick chronological summation of American history from discovery and colonization through independence and the administrations of successive presidents. The book was written as supplementary reading material for junior and senior high school students. Rhymed couplets help the student not only to enjoy but also to remember much better, historical facts and events."

McGalliard, William Alva

Reporter's notebook,
Metro Press, 1973

"This selection of 120 newspaper columns, gleaned from over a thousand, covers many years of reporting on the southern Oklahoma area. The book includes some inspirational columns and several with creativity as subject matter. These come close to the heart of my most cherished fields."

McGee, Dean Anderson, 1904-
 Evolution into total energy; the story of Kerr-McGee Corporation,
 Newcomen Society in North America, 1971, c1970

McReynolds, Edwin C., 1890-1967

Oklahoma; the story of its past and present,
 by Edwin C. McReynolds, Alice Marriott and Estelle
 Faulconer. Rev. ed.,
 University of Oklahoma Press, 1971
This book was co-authored with Alice Marriott and Estelle Faulconer, and is for junior high and high school level. (Ruth M. McReynolds)

McRill, Leslie Anson, 1886-

From day to day, as seen through my binoculars,
 Adman Publishing Company, c1972
 "These are poems of a more personal experience, the urge to give expression to life as I see it in daily happenings."

Living heritage; poems of social concern,
 McRill Publishers, 1970

"This will help preserve such historical events as the famous Medicine Lodge treaty; a commentary on such early Indian Territory poets as Ridge and Posey."

McSherry, Frank D., 1927-

The Janus resolution. In The mystery writer's art, comp. by Francis M. Nevins. Cover illus. by Frank
 D. McSherry, Jr.,
 Bowling Green University Popular Press, 1971, c1970

The shape of crimes to come. In The mystery writer's art, comp. by Francis M. Nevins. Cover illus. by Frank D. McSherry, Jr.,
 Bowling Green University Popular Press, 1971, c1970
 "Humanity usually waits until the dropped match becomes a forest fire before dealing with important problems--the population explosion, for example.
 One day we'll delay once too often. The shape of crimes to come entertains, but I hope it starts you thinking too; the life you save may be my own."

Mettler, Pierson, 1869-1937

Adoration. Compiled and edited by M. E. Mettler-Marks,
 Prairie Press Books, 1970

A book of poems. "Pierson Mettler's poetry, though written some time ago, still carries the same message to be found in nature, and in man, if time is spent to look. Her lines speak to the reader, and should he spend the time, could bring comfort and solutions to life's problems, if listening be in order. It was for this
 --to help mankind--she lived, and for this that her message, it is hoped, shall be of great benefit to all humanity."

Mettler, Pierson

Adoration, (Cont.)

This, from her poem, "Beseechment," expresses the heart of her poetry...

Cling to your faith in Christ which ever gives Triumphant joy. The sting of death is gone--
A victor over the grave--my spirit lives,
And raptured shall it rise to meet the dawn.
Though separated trackless skies from you-- Love's message from your hearts shall reach mine too.

--P.M.

Meyer, Lewis, 1913-

Mostly mama,
Doubleday, 1971Off the sauce,
Curtis Books, 1972Pooped!' the last word on sex manuals, Nash Pub., 1972

Medlock, Julius Lester

Tryst with the stars,
Poems, 1973

"A Poet is both born and made. Early in life he is thrilled with beautiful words couched in beautiful language. A Poet is a Poet not only because he wants to be, but also because he has to be. One person said that one poem in this last book is worth the price of the book."

Miller, Keith

Habitation of dragons; a book of hope about living as a Christian,
Word Books, c1970

Miller, Rudolph J.

Fishes of Oklahoma,
by Rudolph J. Miller and Henry W. Robison,
Oklahoma State University Press, 1973

"What every angler has waited for; maps of the fishing spots of consequence; what, where, when to catch 'em. Statistics, too, if you wish those."

--Glenn Shirley

Misch, Fannie Brownlee

Creek Indian Nation east to west: a pictorial history (about 500 photos), east and west, first of its kind of any one of Five Civilized Tribes.
"Interest to genealogists, historians, Indians.
M.U. now being considered by a publisher for publication."

Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad Company
The opening of the great southwest, 1970

Moffeit, Tony

Oklahoma blues; poems,
by Okie Tony, pseud.,
Inner Books, 1972

"The terminology for regional ideomatic literature varies. Oklahoma blues might be termed; folk, popular or Oklahoma poetry. I, however, prefer to explain Oklahoma blues by relating it to individuals. Verse makers such as Woody Guthrie, Bob Dillon and Ledbelly are the most obvious influences on both me and the book, especially where verse is concerned. As far as other influences, the general philosophy of Henry Thoreau and Walt Whitman is a tremendous influence. Thus, Oklahoma blues is essentially an American work, with influences from originators of a uniquely American way of writing. Really, it is simply the expression of Okie Tony."

Momaday, Scott

The man made of words. In Indian voices, by Convocation of American Indian Scholars,
Indian Historia Press, c1970

The way to rainy mountain,
Ballantine, 1970

Mooney, Charles W.

Localized history of Pottawatomie County, Oklahoma, to 1907,
Thunderbird Industries, c1971

"Herein localized history tells what and when it happened, records names of the leading citizenry of the now 64 ghost towns in this country, and the 10 existing towns, all starting before statehood in 1907. Then there were 54 cotton gins, 62 saloons, and 3 distilleries. Today there are none."

Morgan, David R., ed.

Urban political analysis; a systems approach.
Edited by David R. Morgan and Samuel A. Kirkpatrick,
Free Press, 1972

Morse, David

Grandfather rock: the new poetry and the old,
Delacorrate Press, 1972

Moyer, Alice

Two way teacher,
Carlton Press, 1972

Moyers, Bill D.

Listening to America; a traveler rediscovers his country,
Harper's Magazine Press, 1971

Listening to America; a traveler rediscovers his country,
Dell Pub. Co., 1972

Moynihan, Daniel Patrick

Beyond the melting pot; the Negroes, Puerto Ricans, Jews, Italians, and Irish of New York City, by Nathan Glazer and Daniel Patrick Moynihan. 2nd ed., M.I.T. Press, 1970

Capitalism and democracy: Schumpeter revisited,
New York Univ. Press, 1972

The case for a family allowance. In Cities in trouble, ed. by Nathan Glazer, Quadrangle Books, 1970

On equality of educational opportunity, by Daniel P. Moynihan and Frederick Mosteller,
Random House, 1972

The politics of a guaranteed income,
Random House, 1973

Toward a national urban policy, ed. by Daniel P. Moynihan, Basic Books, 1970

Violent crime,
G. Braziller, 1970

Napier, John T., 1915-1965

The selected poetry and prose of John T. Napier.
Edited by David Lee Rubin, Appalachian Studies Center of Pikeville College, 1972

Nashert, Walter, 1907-

Tepees to towers; the story of building the Sooner State,
Associated General Contractors of America, 1970
"Tepees to towers, the story of building the Sooner state, had to be written. It's the real builders' story, history buried in their hearts and minds: men who die, busy while they build, unthinking of the story they could tell. These pages tell it for them."

Nelson, Louise Dale

When the heart speaks,
Trumpet Vine Press, 1972

"Ten years ago neither my husband nor I knew the first thing about writing poetry, setting type, book binding, editing or the format of a book. But we had a will to work and learn. The first 2000 books of poetry, When the heart speaks, were hand printed on a 6x10 in. letter press. The 5th edition has been lithographed from the original handset type."

Newell, Rosemary

Star house,
Popular Library, 1973

"Enchanted with the exotic Suriname jungle country, with its beauty and its varied races of colorful people, I breathed in an atmosphere of mystery and romance and wrote Star House with the zest of adventure, exploring the minds and hearts of characters it inspired. The title of my next book (the manuscript has just been acknowledged by my agent) is, Ride a golden horse. This is a western Gothic novel, set in pioneer Oklahoma."

Oden, Marily Brown

Beyond feminism; the woman of faith in action,
Abingdon Press, 1971

Oden, Thomas C.

Beyond revolution; a response to the underground church,
Westminster Press, 1970

The intensive group experience; the new pietism,
Westminster Press, 1972

Ogle, Jack

Touchdown Oklahoma,
by Jack Ogle and Bob Barry,
Hooper Printing Co., 1972

Okie Tony, pseud. SEE Moffeit, Tony

Oklahoma City Council of Choctaws

English Choctaw dictionary. From A dictionary of the Choctaw language, by Cyrus Byington, Oklahoma City, 1972

Owens, Lisa A. Slater

The rape of Berlin, by Lisa A. Slater,
Pageant-Poseidon, 1972

"The reason of my writing the book is to inform the American people of the danger of communism."

Painton, Ivan Emory

Reflections from the inner room,
Cameron & Associates, 1971

"In this book, I have attempted to delineate the forces of good and evil, strength and capriciousness, rapture and despair, that are inherent in all of us. In sharing these lines may they strike a chord of emotional reflection, spark the imagination, or serve as an inspiration to others."

Peters, Wilfred F., 1927-

Angels watching over me,
Carlton Press, c1971

Pierce, Gerald Swetnam, ed.

Travels in the Republic of Texas, 1842,
by Francis S. Latham. Edited by Gerald S. Pierce, Encino Press, 1971

Pierce, Joe E.

Language and linguistics,
Humanities Press, 1972

Understanding the Middle East,
Tuttle, 1971

Perino, Gregory

Guide to the identification of certain American Indian projectile points,
Oklahoma Anthropological Society, 1968-1971

"The projectile point guide is the fourth published of the series designed for the use of students and collectors in identifying American Indian projectile points. It gives their age and cultural affiliation. It is the most used point guide in American archaeology and illustrates and describes 50 projectile point types different from the 50 in each of the previous three guides."

Mississippian site archaeology in Illinois,
Illinois Archaeological Survey, 1971

"The reports in Mississippian site archaeology in Illinois are of three digs sponsored by the Thomas Gilcrease Institute of American History and Art, Tulsa, Oklahoma, and describes new evidence found of acculturation between non-related Indian groups; an unreported type of mortuary structure used by one group; the discovery of Meso-American-like shell long- and short-nosed god masks; evidence that some skeletons had filed notches in their teeth; evidence of trade between Spiro Mounds in eastern Oklahoma, the Tennessee Valley, and Illinois; description of a newly discovered pottery type; and a description and use of artifact types hitherto unreported. Information in the reports can be most useful to students and others studying the Mississippian culture period of A.D. 1050-1250."

Peterson, Royce H.
 True tales in Oklahoma,
 Edited by Gene Aldrich and Royce H. Peterson,
 Thompson Book and Supply Co., c1971

Pike, James Albert, Bp., 1913-1969

The wilderness revolt; a new view of the life and death of Jesus based on ideas and notes of the late Bishop James A. Pike, by Diane Kennedy Pike and R. Scott Kennedy,
 Doubleday, 1972

Whether such an insurrection was planned as part of a coordinated attack, we cannot of course determine. But it does seem clear that the uprising which Barabbas led culminated in violence and death, whereas there is no suggestion anywhere that Jesus' cleansing of the Temple had any such results. It would have been logical for the Romans first to pursue and suppress the rebels involved in the attack on their forces (probably in the fortress or some other part of the city), and only later, as part of a clean-up operation designed to prevent further uprisings during the festival week, to have sought Jesus the Nazarene who had led a nonviolent attack on the Temple. This would also explain why Jesus alone was arrested and not his followers. If there had as yet been no violence on their part, Romans may only have wanted to remove their leader as a preventive measure, hoping to forestall a Messianic uprising before it gathered momentum.

Pointer, Jack D.

How to sue in small claims court in Oklahoma,
 Available from Oklahoma City University Bookstore, 1972

Potter, Dan

The age of stoning,
 Fawcett World Library, 1972

The age of stoning,
 Stein and Day, 1971

The way of an eagle,
 Fawcett World Library, 1971

The way of an eagle,
 Stein and Day, 1970, c1969

Pritchard, John Paul, 1902-

A literary approach to the New Testament,
University of Oklahoma Press, 1972

"This, my fifth book, is a nontheological approach to the New Testament. It attempts to show the authors' parts in the writing of the several books and to interpret them as one would approach secular literary works. Methods of interpretation are explained in the introduction. It should help the reader to a better understanding of what each book says, and thus is preparatory to further secular or religious study."

Proctor, Dorothea Hardy
The delight of being,
Olivant Press, 1972

Quimby, Myrtle (Chambers), 1891-

White crow,

Criterion Books, 1970

"After studying Oklahoma history, and reading a number of books eulogizing the courage and fortitude of the early white settlers, I had seen no book written from the Indian point of view. Those dispossessed people who were promised all the Oklahoma lands, 'So long as grass grows and water flows.'"

Rachlin, Carol K.

American epic; the story of the American Indian,
by Alice Marriott and Carol K. Rachlin,
New American Library, 1970

American epic: the story of the American Indian,
by Alice Marriott and Carol K. Rachlin,
Putnam, 1970, c1969

American Indian mythology,
by Alice Marriott and Carol K. Rachlin,
New American Library, 1972

Negro Indians, by Carol K. Rachlin and Alice Marriott. Paper presented to the 19th annual meeting of the American Society for Ethnohistory, 1971.

Oklahoma: the forty-sixth star,
by Alice Marriott and Carol K. Rachlin,
Doubleday, 1973

Peyote, by Alice Marriott and Carol K. Rachlin,
Crowell, 1971

Ragan, Tillman J.

Teaching in the new elementary school,
by William B. Ragan, John H. Wilson, and Tillman J. Ragan,
Holt, Rinehart and Winston, 1970

Ragan, William Burk, 1896-

Foundation of American education,
by William B. Ragan and George Henderson,
Harper & Row, 1970

"The book has been used as a text in colleges and universities. It should also be useful to others who want to gain a better understanding of the American school as a social institution."

Modern elementary curriculum,
by William B. Ragan and Gene D. Sheperd. 4th ed.,
Holt, Rinehart and Winston, 1971

"Recent developments in school and society have made it desirable to publish a fourth edition of this book which has served as a college text for almost 20 years. The book should be useful for anyone who wants to gain a better understanding of historical, psychological, and social forces which have influenced the development of the American elementary school."

Teaching in the new elementary school,
by William B. Ragan, John H. Wilson, and Tillman J. Ragan,
Holt, Rinehart and Winston, 1972

"This book has served as a text for college courses dealing with newer teaching strategies--the method of inquiry, simulation, the use of instructional technology, concept learning, and other strategies. The book should also be useful to anyone who wants to gain a better understanding of recent innovations in teaching."

Teaching science in the elementary school,
by John W. Renner, Don G. Stafford, and William B. Ragan. 2nd ed.,
Harper & Row, 1973

"Since this college text was first published in 1968, many changes have taken place in the teaching of science in elementary schools. This edition reflects those changes. Anyone who is interested in gaining a better understanding of significant changes in this exciting phase of the elementary school curriculum will profit from reading this book."

Raley, Helen Thames

An uncommon man; the life of John Wesley Raley,
Word Books, 1970

"This is the biography of Dr. John Wesley Raley, long-time President, Chancellor, and President-Emeritus of Oklahoma Baptist University, Shawnee. An outstanding figure on Oklahoma's education, church, and political scene for nearly 40 years, he was included in Who's Who in America from 1936, and was elected to Oklahoma Hall of Fame in 1958 honored by the magnificent John Wesley Raley Chapel in Shawnee, a memorial to his dauntless spirit, his distinguished career."

Raley, Helen Thames (Cont.)

The golden days and the gallant hours,
Transcript Press, 1972

"This is a compilation of selected writings and statements of the late Dr. John Wesley Raley, long-time president and administrator of Oklahoma Baptist University, Shawnee. Dr. Raley was known for his superb oratory, his mastery with words, both written and spoken."

Raley, John Wesley, 1902-1968

The golden days and the gallant hours,
Transcript Press, 1972

Ray, Grace Ernestine

Wily women of the West,
Naylor, 1972

"The bad men of the West had their counterpart in women who have also become legendary characters. My objective was to refute some tales on famous feminine operators. Belle Starr was not a killer--but a distinguished horse thief. Cattle Kate was not a rustler, but was lynched. Calamity Jane, as nurse, saved a smallpox patient. Peg-leg Annie, aiding a friend, lost her legs in a blizzard."

Reed, William

William Babcock Hazen: curmudgeon or crusader?
In Troopers West, ed. by Ray Brandes,
Frontier Heritage Press, 1970

Renner, John Wilson, 1924-

Educators guide to free science materials,
Edited by Mary H. Saterstrom and John W. Renner,
Rev. 13th ed.,
Educators Progress Service, 1972

Guiding learning in the secondary schools,
by John W. Renner, Robert F. Bibens, and Gene D. Shepherd,
Harper & Row, 1972

Teaching science in the elementary school,
by John W. Renner, Don G. Stafford, and William B. Ragan, 2nd ed.,
Harper & Row, 1973

Teaching science in the secondary school,
by John W. Renner and Don G. Stafford,
Harper & Row, 1972

Rentzel, Lance, 1943-

When all the laughter died in sorrow,
Saturday Review Press, 1972

Richardson, Mozelle Groner
Portrait of fear,
Warner Paperback Library, 1971 and 1972

Curse of Kalispont,
Warner Paperback Library, 1972

The masks of Thespis,
Warner Paperback Library, 1973

A candle in the wind,
Wm. Morrow & Co., 1973

"I write only about those subjects in which I am vitally interested. If others find an interest in those same things, then I'm fortunate. I learned the fundamentals of novel writing from Foster-Harris at O.U. and at an age when most women retire to spend their life babysitting with their grandchildren (I have eight) a whole new world has opened up for me."

Roberts, Oral, 1918-
The call; an autobiography,
Doubleday, 1972

Healing Scriptures, with personal commentary,
Oral Roberts Evangelistic Association, c1971

Miracle of seed-faith,
Tulsa, Okla., c1970

Robeson, Kenneth SEE Dent, Lester, page 65

Robison, Henry W.
Fishes of Oklahoma,
by Rudolph J. Miller and Henry W. Robison,
Oklahoma state University Press, 1973

Robison, John Vincent
Modern algebra and trigonometry,
McGraw-Hill, 1973
"My hope was to produce a book that (1) keeps the student constantly aware of the fact that set theory provides both the language and symbolism for constructing 'modern' mathematics and (2) uses these concepts throughout the book to develop the usual topics of algebra and trigonometry."

Modern trigonometry,
McGraw-Hill, 1970
"There is a definite need for a short text, written from a modern point of view, that provides a foundation in trigonometry necessary for present day courses in analytic geometry and calculus. This book was done to fill the need."

Roff, Charles F.

Oklahoma Farm Bureau: the early years,
Oklahoma Farm Bureau, 1972

We were young together,
Vantage Press, 1973

"My grandchildren and neices and nephews urged me to write some of the incidents of interesting and unusual boyhood and this book is the answer to their requests. To the readers it will bring to mind bits of history of our State that have not been recorded. It is the story of the late days of the Territories and early days of Statehood as seen and experienced by a boy."

Rogers, Will, 1879-1935

Ether and me "or just relax", by Will Rogers.
Edited, and with an introd., by Joseph A. Stout, Jr.
Pref. by Will Rogers, Jr. Vol. 1 of a 6-vol. series,
Oklahoma State University Press, 1973

"Will Rogers' own story of experiences with the medical profession. Highly humorous, it is, nevertheless, serious in its underlayment of actual happenings; then--perhaps now." --Glenn Shirley

The Will Rogers book,
Compiled by Paula McSpadden Love,
Texian Press, 1972, cl971

A generous sampling of the many sides to the character of Will Rogers, done by his niece, brings to mind a poem, which expresses, I believe, the heart of the book.

Will Rogers
HE gave his truths in simple guise
His was a friendly pen;
He spent his life in being wise,
For ordinary men.--P.W.

Wise and witty sayings of a great American humorist,
Selected by Art Wortman with photos from the collection of the Will Rogers Memorial, Claremore, Okla.
Hallmark Editions, 1970, cl969

Roller, Duane Henry Du Bose, 1920- ed.

Perspectives in the history of science and technology,
University of Oklahoma Press, 1971

Rossi, Paul A. 1929-

The art of the Old West, from the collection of the Gilcrease Institute, by Paul A. Rossi and David C. Hunt, Knopf, 1971

- Rouse, Roscoe, 1919-
Automation stops here; a case for man-made book collections. In Advances in understanding approval and gathering plans in academic libraries, ed. by Peter Spyers-Duran and Daniel Gore, Western Michigan University, 1970
- Rowland, Walter Pervia
Helpful harmonies of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, by the ignorant and unlearned for the ignorant and unlearned, Vantage Press, 1972
"I wrote Helpful harmonies, to harmonize the scripture, by giving people the key to understanding Christ's message to all his people of all races. If you really want to understand the new testament, give this book careful study and it will help you.
. . . and to God be the Glory"
- Ruhm, Myer Aaron, 1952-
National Legal's California basic instant reference manual for attorneys and legal counselors, Oklahoma City, c1971

The Oklahoma basic instant reference manual for attorneys and legal counselors, Oklahoma City, c1970
- Rundell, Walter
In pursuit of American history; research and training in the United States, Foreword by James B. Rhoads, University of Oklahoma Press, 1970
- Runyan, Nadine, ed.
Pioneers of Cleveland County, 1889-1907, Cleveland County Historical Society, 1971
"Biographies and true experiences of 97 pioneers and their families. There have been three printings of this book."

Pioneers and early settlers of Cleveland County 1889-1925, Cleveland County Historical Society, 1973
"Biographies and true experiences of 59 different families. This second book was printed by popular request of many who had missed the first book or who came later."

"These stories were collected and printed to honor the pioneers and to have a permanent record of the Cleveland County pioneers. We wished to impress the future generations with the heritage they received from the hardships and accomplishments of their forefathers."

Rushmore, Helen

Bigfoot Wallace and the hickory nut battle,
Garrard Pub. Co., 1970

Ghost dance on Coyote Butte,
Garrard Pub. Co., 1971

Gib Morgan; fantastic driller,
Garrard Pub. Co., 1970

Sancho the homesick steer,
Garrard Pub. Co., 1972

"The Southwest is rich in folklore of the Indians, of cattle and trailing, and of humorous folk heroes. Although this material is readily available to adult researchers of folklore, it is almost out of reach of children. As a librarian, I used these stories with success. Now I am attempting to retell the tales so little children can read them while they are still young and full of laughter."

Ruth, Kent

Touring the old West,
S. Greene Press, 1971

"For the 'old hand' western traveler, familiar with usual sights and activities and looking for the more out-of-the-way attraction - for the collector-type visitor interested in such areas as mountain passes, ghost towns, old hotels and opera houses, railroads, Indians, and so on."

Window on the past,
Oklahoma Publishing Co., 1973

"A one-volume edition of my 'Window' series in the Sunday Oklahoman, 1971-1972. Some 75 historic sites in Oklahoma for which National Register status is being sought. Text, map and picture for each."

Sallaska, Georgia

The last Heracles,
Doubleday, 1971

Priam's daughter,
Doubleday, 1970

"I wrote my books to entertain, amuse and instruct myself; also because I had no choice. I hope if a reader chooses to read, he too will be entertained and amused--and, perhaps, a little instructed."

Sattler, Helen Roney

Beginning to read puzzle book,
T. S. Denison, 1970

The eggless cookbook,
A. S. Barnes, 1972

Holiday gifts, favors and decorations that you can make,
Lothrop, Lee & Shepard Co., 1973

Jewelry from junk,
Lothrop, Lee & Shepard Co., 1973

Kitchen carton crafts,
Lothrop, Lee & Shepard, 1970

Sockcraft: toys, gifts, and other things to make,
Lothrop, Lee & Shepard Co., 1972

"The craft books were written to provide children and those who work with them (teachers, den mothers, Girl Scout leaders, church groups, etc.) with useful, inexpensive, easily made, craft ideas constructed from discard material found in most homes. Eggless cookbook provides 200 eggless recipes for those who must avoid eggs."

Sayers, Stanley E., 1933-

Reflecting on the spirit,
Gospel Light Pub. Co., c1972

Optimism in an age of peril,
"A collection of the author's writings in his department, 'In Defense of the Faith,' for The Voice of Freedom publication. Outstanding chapters on restoring faith in God, the Bible, youth and Americanism."

A drink from the deeper wells,
"A collection of the author's select articles from many religious periodicals over the past few years which have enjoyed a very wide circulation. Inspiration, reflection and challenge."

This side of heaven,
Not yet published, but similar to the aforementioned. Should be out in 1973."

Sayre, John Leslie, 1924-

An index of festschriften in religion, compiled by John L. Sayre and Roberta Hamburger,
Phillips University Seminary Press, 1970

A manual of forms for term papers and theses,
Phillips University Seminary Press, 1971

Sayre, John Leslie, 1924- (Cont.)

"I compiled the Index of festschriften in religion and the Illustrated guide to the Anglo-American cataloging rules to assist librarians in both reference and cataloging. The P.S.I. collection was prepared to encourage teachers to experiment with an exciting new method of individualized instruction."

An illustrated guide to the Anglo-American Cataloging Rules,
Phillips University Seminary Press, 1971

The personalized system of instruction in higher education: readings on P.S.I. - the Keller plan,
Phillips University Seminary Press, 1972

Scantlan, Sam W.

T. B. Lackey: the man and an epoch,
Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, 1971

"I wrote T. B. Lackey: the man and an epoch because of his leadership of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma for twenty years. The Convention wanted the story written and invited me to do it. During those twenty years, the Convention had tremendous growth. I enjoyed the assignment."

Scott, Bill SEE Hill, Weldon, pseud.

Scott, Mable

Mable's fables,
Naylor, 1971

"This book was written at the request of readers of my weekly column. It was done, as most of my writings are, strictly to entertain. Makes a good gift for those who like a short piece to pass the time as--doctor's office, bedside reading or on a trip."

Shannon, Ruby W.

"Friends" for the Indians; 100 years of education at Riverside Indian School, Anadarko, Oklahoma, Riverside Indian School, 1971

Sharp, Evelyn

The IQ cult,
Coward, McCann & Geoghegan, 1972

"I wrote The IQ cult to debunk IQ testing. There's a lot of Ralph Nader in me. I think people have a right to know exactly what IQ scores do (and do not) show, especially when these scores figure in gut decisions made by courts of law."

Shedd, Charlie W.

The fat is in your head,

Word Books, 1972

"The fat is in your head deals with a psycho-spiritual approach to weight control. This is a problem that has always been with me and always will be."

Is your family turned on? Coping with the drug culture,

Word Books, 1972

"Most of my writing is related to 'the family'. And to young people. I believe in the youth of today. Most of them are great! And Martha and I feel sure that the hope of tomorrow depends on the homes of today. What goes on at your address and mine is all important."

Promises to Peter; building a bridge from parent to child,

Word Books, 1970

The stork is dead,

Word Books, 1972

Sheets, Bess Mae

This cry is mine; poems and vignettes,

Harlow Publishing Co., c1971

"This book of vignettes and poems was written to share inspirational threads of life that they may be interlaced for a higher level of living. That the reader may be aroused and attuned to acceptance, appreciation and show affection, with a positive attitude, toward humanity."

Shepherd, Gene D.

Guiding learning in the secondary schools,

by John W. Renner, Robert F. Bibens, and Gene D.

Shepherd,

Harper & Row, 1972

Shirley, Glenn

Shotgun for hire; the story of "Deacon" Jim Miller, killer of Pat Garrett,

University of Oklahoma Press, 1970

"Offers a slice of southwestern history never before published! Jim Miller, killer for hire, is hung at Ada. Clear-cut eventual justice when men were men."

Shumake, Thelma Knight

Peace poems with rhyme rhythm & reason,

1970

"An attempt to say for young conscientious people what they instinctively know but seem unable to express."

Shumake, Thelma Knight (Cont.)

That is human nature too,

1973

"Poems showing human nature's good side."

New dreams,

1973

"Poems showing author's philosophy of life."

Siemens, Anna Daisy

Stand tall,

Dorrance & Company, c1970

"Stand tall was written under compulsion of mind-crowding thoughts. Most of the poems mirror my faith in God and my fellowman. The book was published to share this high-road life of contentment with others."

Simms, James R.

A measure of knowledge,

Philosophical Library, 1971, c1968

Slater, Lisa SEE Owens, Lisa A. Slater

Smith, Helen (Reagan)

Jesus stood by us,

Broadman Press, 1970

"Sorrow and death enter into the lives of all and can be met either by withering or rising above the hurt into fuller, happier lives. This book deals with case histories of true experiences from those who retreated, and those who rose to the new challenge."

Smith, Nina G.

Underneath the bough,

Oklahoma City, 1971

"The poems in Underneath the bough were written over a period of many years. As to the reason for collecting them into a volume, I cannot say it better than in my dedication: To my beloved family and friends who insisted on this collection, this book is gratefully and lovingly dedicated."

Snell, Ronald K.

A new order in the world,

by Norman L. Crockett and Ronald K. Snell,

University of Oklahoma Press, 1973

Snow, Donald Clifford, 1917-

Jim Thorpe, by Thomas Fall,

Crowell, 1970

The ordeal of running standing, by Thomas Fall,
Bantam, 1971

The ordeal of running standing, by Thomas Fall,
McCull Pub. Co., 1970

Sprague, Noma, ed.

A pioneer history of Shattuck,
Co-editors: Donna Baker and Joanne Keith,
Shattuck, Okla., c1970

Sprague, Robert S., 1904-

Grass money: Lawton's own story; a historical novel,
Lawton, Okla., c1970

"Grass money, published 1970 by myself and there will be a paper-back version out in September published by Lancer Books, Inc."

The ghosts of Palo Duro Canyon,
R. B. Sweet Co., 1973

Grass money. Rev.,
Lawton, Okla., 1972

"I have a new revised Grass money, published by myself in 1972, containing a little different ending, and it also has a 20-page Fort Sill pictorial history from 1869 to 1902 in the back of the revised book."

Stanley, Ruth Houston
Iowa Chapel community,
Perkins, Okla., 1972

Stapp, Andy
Up against the brass,
Simon and Schuster, 1970

Starr, Emmet, 1870-1930
Old Cherokee families: "old families and their genealogy". With a comprehensive index compiled by
J. J. Hill. 2nd ed.,
University of Oklahoma Foundation, 1972

Starr, Henry, 1873-1921
Thrilling events; life of Henry Starr. In The bandit
Belle, by Carl W. Breihan,
Hangman Press, 1970

Stealey, Emma Kломann, 1871-1968
Through the quiet door,
Leslie McRill, 1969
A nostalgic collection of the poems of a long and interesting life. These little poems reflect a sensitive acceptance, as in the following:

Renewal

"The sun will shine again,	The wind will blow again,
The moon will glow again,	The rain will fall again,
And you will smile again,	And you will laugh again,
This you should know.	Believe it so."

- Stewart, Roy P.
Thunderbird; a history of the 45th Infantry Division, by Guy Nelson. Edited, production supervised and a foreword by Roy P. Stewart,
45th Infantry Division Association, c1970
- Stocking, Hobart E.
The road to Santa Fe.
Hastings House Publishers, 1971
- Stout, Dorothy L.
A man of character; poems,
Colorgraphics, c1970
- The magnificent present; a petite anthology,
Colorgraphics, c1970
- "These two books are a presentation in poetry of philosophy inherent in Eastern thought-forms. They examine the exquisite means of the Asian in establishing his method of living, threading his art through the center of his culture as he imbues the forms of religion, work and leisure with the texture of creative patterns. Japanese verse-forms and re-interpretations of ancient Chinese poetry are unique features of both volumes. The third and final volume of the series, A hint of jade, is awaiting publication."
- Stout, Joseph A., Jr., ed.
Ether and me "or just relax", by Will Rogers.
Edited, and with an introd., by Joseph A. Stout, Jr.
Pref. by Will Rogers, Jr. Vol. 1 of a 6-vol. series.
Oklahoma State University Press, 1973
- Strain, Jack W.
An outline of Oklahoma government. 4th rev.
Rickner's Book Store, 1970, c1967
- An outline of Oklahoma government. 5th rev.
Rickner's Book Store, 1971, c1967
- Summers, Mark W.
A student cartoonist's views of great figures in American history,
Washington Square Press, 1972
- Sutton, George Miksch, 1898-
At a bend in a Mexican river,
P. S. Ericksson, 1972
"Running account of three expeditions to Mexico, the first (1941) to southwestern Tamaulipas; the second (1948-49) to Tamaulipas, Hidalgo, Queretaro, Morelos, Michoacán, and Tarascan Indian country in the Balsas drainage; the third (1951-52) to the wild Huastecan Indian country in San Luis Potosí. Again a plea for preservation of wild parts of the country.

Sutton, George Miksch, 1898-

At a bend in a Mexican river, (Cont.)

Illustrated with several full-page color plates and half-tones, some of them photographic, some of drawings of birds and birds' heads."

High Arctic,

P. S. Ericksson, 1971

"An account of an important midsummer expedition to northern islands of the eastern part of the Canadian Arctic Archipelago. Most of the observations were made on Bathurst I., but Ellesmere and Cornwallis also were visited, and several others were flown over in an attempt to find a nesting colony of Ivory Gulls. Interesting narrative involving muskoxen, Barren Grounds wolves, ptarmigan, arctic hares, sanderlings, etc., and discussion of correlations between molt, color changes and degree of latitude among boreal forms of life. A plea for preservation of the muskox."

Talley, Naomi

The new-cut road,

Hawthorn Books, 1971

Tassin, Ray

Life of Stanley Vestal,

Arthur Clark Co., 1973

"Direct from a multitude of the papers of Walter Campbell, I was fascinated by the whole personality: by many things heretofore unpublished. It was as if I were talking to him in person. Hopefully, the same impression may be induced in the reader."

Taylor, James C.

A porcine history of philosophy and religion,
Abingdon Press, 1972

"It seemed to me high time that someone attempted to show the pleasurable and humorous side of the study of philosophy and religion, fields of study not exactly famous for the levity of their practitioners. I hope my readers will enjoy the pigs as much as I do."

Teall, Kaye (Moulton), 1922-

Black history in Oklahoma: a resource book,
Oklahoma City Public Schools, c1971

"Black history in Oklahoma was written because of a conviction that young people must know and understand that multi-racial heritage we all share. This facet of our history has been ignored too long."

Witches get everything,
Scholastic, 1973

"Witches get everything is a novel for teenagers, written to encourage reading for pleasure."

Texhoma Genealogical and Historical Society
Panhandle pioneers,
Texhoma, Okla., 1970

Thomas, Ross, 1926-
The backup men,
Morrow, 1971

Brass go-between, by Oliver Bleeck, pseud.,
Pocket Books, 1971

The fools in town are on our side,
Avon Books, 1972

The fools in town are on our side,
London, Hodder & Stoughton, 1970

The fools in town are on our side,
Morrow, 1971

The porkchoppers,
Morrow, 1972

The Procane chronicle, by Oliver Bleeck, pseud.,
Morrow, 1972, c1971

Protocol for a kidnapping, by Oliver Bleeck, pseud.,
Morrow, 1971

Protocol for a kidnapping, by Oliver Bleeck, pseud.,
Pocket Books, 1972

Thompson, Ann
What happened to Bethany?
Forum House, 1972

Thompson, Beverly
A gift of love in paint and pen,
Oklahoma City, c1971

A gift of poetry in paint and pen,
Oklahoma City, c1970

"I write and paint for pleasure. I love communicating with people both with words and visual concepts. My book is about love of people, times, places, children, nature, memories and many other loves. Love is a many faceted jewel not to be observed by only one view. My book is for people of all ages. Isn't that what it's all about anyway?"

Timmons, Alice Tyner
Our people and where they rest,
by James W. Tyner and Alice Tyner Timmons, 7 vols., American Indian Institute, University of Oklahoma, 1969-1972

- Tolson, Arthur Lincoln, 1924-
The black Oklahomans, a history, 1541-1972,
Edwards Printing Co., 1973
- Tolson, Melvin Beaunorus, 1900-1966
Dark symphony. African china. Lambda. In Blackamerican literature, 1760-present, comp. by Ruth Miller. With a foreword by John Hope Franklin,
Glencoe Press, 1971
- Dark symphony. Lambda. Do. In The poetry of the Negro, 1746-1970, ed. by Langston Hughes and Arna Bontemps.
New rev. ed.,
Doubleday, 1970
- Liberto for the republic of Liberia,
Macmillan, 1970
- Trimble, Joseph E.
An index of the social indicators of the American Indian in Oklahoma,
Oklahoma City, 1972
- Tsianina SEE Blackstone, Tsianina, 1892-
- Turner, Richard E.
Big friend, little friend,
Curtis Books, 1972
- Turney, Alfred W.
Disaster at Moscow; von Bock's campaigns, 1941-1942,
University of New Mexico Press, 1970
- Tyner, James W.
Our people and where they rest,
by James W. Tyner and Alice Tyner Timmons,
American Indian Institute, University of Oklahoma, 1969-1972
- Vol. 1 - A visit to eighty-nine old cemeteries in the old Cherokee Nation. 1969
- Vol. 2 - A visit to eighty-two old cemeteries in northeast Oklahoma. 1970
- Vol. 3 - A visit to one hundred four old cemeteries
in northeast Oklahoma. 1970
- Vol. 4 - A visit to one hundred two old cemeteries
in northeast Oklahoma. 1971
- Vol. 5 - A visit to one hundred six old cemeteries
in northeast Oklahoma. 1971
- Vol. 6 - A visit to one hundred eight old cemeteries
in eastern Oklahoma. 1971
- Vol. 7 - A visit to one hundred three old cemeteries
in eastern Oklahoma. 1972
- "Historical and genealogical record of old and abandoned cemeteries in 16 counties of N.E. Oklahoma (Old Cherokee Nation). 57,000 graves of early settlers, approx. 37 Indian tribes, Negroes, etc. AWARDS: American Association for State and Local History Commendation, Oklahoma Heritage Award for Distinguished Service, BY-LINER Award from Oklahoma Women in Communications."

Vestal, Stanley, pseud., 1887-1957

Queen of cowtowns: Dodge City, "the wickedest little city in America," 1872-1886, University of Nebraska Press, 1972, c1952
The history of Dodge City, "the wickedest little city in America, 1872-1886", is entertainingly told. "There, it was said, a man might break all the Ten Commandments in one night, die with his boots on, and be buried in Boot Hill in the morning" To quote the author, "In this book our purpose is to recapture that experience, to understand what that fort, that camp, that wicked cowtown signified."

Short grass country,
 Greenwood Press, 1970, c1941

Jim Bridger, mountain man; a biography,
 University of Nebraska Press, 1970, c1946

Wagner, Stanley P., 1923-

The end of revolution: a new assessment of today's rebellions,
 A. S. Barnes, 1970

"The book End of revolution was conceived and partly written in the early 1960's. It was a challenge to the prevailing thought of continuous revolution, increased production, and generally a belief then held about unlimited resources. It projected a stable population of 250 million for America, a search for greater spiritual and artistic values, and a greater respect for stability. Ten years later I feel more confident than ever about this direction in America."

Wahshowhgaley SEE Finney, T. M.

Wallace, Edyth (Thomas)

Parents and children,
 Oklahoma Publishing Co., c1970

Walton, Alene V.

Touring Europe and the Holy Land,
 Carlton Press, 1972

Walton, Roy

It wasn't easy,
 Elk City, Okla., 1970

Ward, William Fletcher

Uncommon clay; poems,
 Dorrance, 1972

"Man finds a semblance of relief in the realities, but for ultimate serenity he reaches for the mystic sources of a greater domain. These poems are written to direct man's hope and faith outward and upward, lifting him into that other world of his dwelling."

- Watson, Irwin Anderson
 Old Wetumka Creek Indian Mission, 1880-1910,
 Tulsa, Mrs. J. Travis Watson, 1972
- Weathers, Winston, 1926-
 The attitudes of rhetoric,
 by Winston Weather and Otis Winchester,
 Prentice-Hall, 1970
- Indian and white; sixteen eclogues,
 University of Nebraska Press, c1970
- The lonesome game,
 David Lewis, c1970
- Messages from the asylum,
 J. Nichols, 1970
- Weaver, Ben H.
 The student exploiters,
 Phillips University Press, 1970
 "The student exploiters resulted from concern about post-sputnik pressures found in large, impersonal high schools. I describe the alienation, despair and ulcers unintentionally caused and suggest reforms. This paperback is based upon solid research but is written in a crisp, non-technical style that should interest teachers, parents and students themselves."
- Webb, Guy P., 1900-
 History of Grant County, Oklahoma, 1811-1970, Grant County Historical Society, 1971
- Wheelus, Doris
 Cheerleading and baton twirling,
 Grosset and Dunlap, 1972
- Wheeler, Joseph Clyde
 This way, please!
 Bethany Press, 1972
 "My latest book, This way, please!, is a self-help book, the purpose of which is to reach a larger audience than the pulpit or personal counselling provides. It is the hope of the writer that the reader will think of himself in a personal encounter out of which comes idea-sharing and inspiration for richer and better living in these days."
- Wilkinson, Bud SEE Wilkinson, Charles Burnham

- Wilkinson, Charles Burnham
Sports illustrated football: offense, by Bud Wilkinson,
Lippincott, 1972
"The publishers of Sports Illustrated called to ask me if I would write a basic text which would become part of the Sports Illustrated Sports Library.
This series comprising some 25 texts is designed to provide basic instruction to participants and coaches in individual and team sports. Because of my long association with the game of football, I was pleased to accept the assignment. I am currently engaged in doing a companion text: Football defense to be published during the summer of 1973."
- Williams, Dorothy Jeanne, 1930-
New medicine, by Jeanne Williams,
Putnam, 1971

Trails of tears; American Indians driven from their lands, by Jeanne Williams,
Putnam, 1972
- Williams, Jeanne SEE Williams, Dorothy Jeanne, 1930-
- Williams, Mason Douglas, 1938-
F.C.C. rapport. New ed.,
Liveright, 1970

Flavors,
Doubleday, 1970
- Wilson, John Harold, 1935-
Teaching in the new elementary school,
by William B. Ragan, John H. Wilson, and Tillman J.
Ragan,
Holt, Rinehart and Winston, 1972
- Wilson, Susan
Introduction to logic: prepared by Susan Wilson for the Arts Foundation Course Team, Open University Press, 1971-
- Winchester, Otis
The attitudes of rhetoric,
by Winston Weathers and Otis Winchester,
Prentice-Hall, 1970
- Womack, John, 1937-
Zapata and the Maxican Revolution,
Random House, 1970

- Wood, John Carl
Major differences in Federal and Oklahoma income tax laws, by Kenneth Hurst and John Carl Wood, Oklahoma Society of Certified Public Accountants, 1970
- Woods, Ora Lee
April verse for any month, Naylor Co., 1970
"This is a collection of light verse for fun and pleasure reading. The theme is varied and reflects serious thought expressed with wit and humor. Nearly everyone can identify with this situation verse and quote it knowingly. Good reading for a chuckle any day of the month!"
- Woods, Pendleton
Myriad of sports...a profile of Oklahoma City, by Pen Woods and Frank K. Boggs, All Sports Association of Oklahoma City, c1971
- Woodward, Grace Steele
The secret of Sherwood Forest, by Grace Steele Woodward and Guy H. Woodward, Oklahoma University Press, 1973
"Secret of Sherwood Forest has been written to tell the hitherto untold story of the amazing adventures of forty-four American oil field 'roughnecks, secretly recruited in late 1942, to augment an oil development program in the heart of legendary Sherwood Forest. Now, after more than a quarter of a century, the authors were given access to literally thousands of private and official files in America and Britain that tell this amazing and thrilling story of courage and fortitude. Although it reads more like fiction than fact, it has been thoroughly and carefully documented for the pleasure of the reader."
- Woodward, Guy H.
The secret of Sherwood Forest, by Grace Steele Woodward and Guy H. Woodward, University of Oklahoma Press, 1973
- Worley, Robert C.
Change in the church: a source of hope, Westminster, 1971
- Wright, Ben
What next? Poems, Oklahoma City, 1971
- Wyman, Forrest Paul
Simulation modeling: a guide to using SIMSCRIPT, Wiley, 1970

LOUIS L'AMOUR

Los Angeles, Calif.
March 7, 1973.

Dear Mr. Campbell:

How much can be learned from my books depends on the reader, how much he brings to the reading and how wide his range of interests. There is much in the books of history, and not only of our frontier, but of the world; there is also philosophy (at least one school is using them in a course this year) there is much information on flora, fauna, geology, Indians, frontier life, literature read on the frontier (based on research) and survival in the wilderness.

Most of all I like my readers to be aware that the West was only a fragment of a larger world, and in no way isolated. In SHALAKO my lead character fights in the French army as a soldier of fortune. He is there for the Franco-Prussian War, and during an interlude he often visits a cafe in Paris on the Avenue Clichy, the Guerbois, and there he became acquainted with DeGas, Manet and Zola.

For some reason people are often surprised to learn that DeGas was a contemporary of Wild Bill Hickok and Sitting Bull, but such was the case. Captain Keogh, who died with Custer, had been a member of the Vatican Guard. Chris Madsen, who was a marshal on the Oklahoma frontier fought in the Franco-Prussian War also, and was a member of the French Foreign Legion before coming west to join the Fifth Cavalry.

These things fascinate me as do all aspects of history, and they have a part in my books. One of my characters meets Maude Adams in a small hotel in Colorado; another meets Meyer Guggenheim in a restaurant in Leadville.

Thanks for asking me for the comment, whether you have the space for it or not. And the best of luck...I think this an excellent idea.

Cordially,

Louis L'Amour

I do not view the American frontier as isolated in time, but as a piece of the ages; the people in my stories come from everywhere, and often return; nor are they only the unlettered, but the younger sons of noble families, soldiers, the adventurous and the desperate, having one thing in common: the courage to sever old ties and enter a vast new world they must change with their hands and their minds. I write of people who live with awareness, with perspective, and who are a part of all they have met, and will meet.

Dent, Lester (Cont.)

"Lester Dent had hoped...to write what he felt were first rate books and stories...Instead he got hired to write the Doc Savage series and he spent nearly two decades hidden behind the penname Kenneth Robeson. The current Bantam paperback revivals have now sold over twelve million copies and so Dent has become, some ten years after his death, one of the best selling authors of the century." (Goulart, Ron. Cheap Thrills: an Informal History of the Pulp Magazines, Arlington House, 1972, p. 75-76) Dent also wrote under his real name. He did not write the Avenger series, which was written by Paul Ernest, under the penname of 'Kenneth Robeson' too."-- Frank D. McSherry, Jr.

- | | |
|--|--|
| Devil on the moon,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1970 | The metal master,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1973 |
| The feathered octopus,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1970 | The midas man,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1970 |
| The freckled shark,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1972 | The motion menace,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1971 |
| The giggling ghosts,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1971 | The munitions master,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1971 |
| The golden peril,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1970 | Murder mirage,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1972 |
| The green death,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1971 | The pirate's ghost,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1971 |
| Haunted ocean,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1970 | Poison Island,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1971 |
| He could stop the world,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
or Daniels, Norman, pseud.
Bantam, 1970 | Quest of the spider,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1972 |
| The land of Long Ju Ju,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1970 | The sea angel,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1970 |
| The living fire menace,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1971 | The seal magician,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1970 |
| Mad mesa,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1972 | Spook hole,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1972 |
| The Majii,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1971 | The submarine mystery,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1971 |
| The men who smiled no more,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1970 | The vanisher,
by Kenneth Robeson, pseud.
Bantam, 1971 |

Compliments

Oklahoma Fixture Company representing

Library Bureau

UNIVERSAL
LIBRARY

112 356

UNIVERSAL
LIBRARY